Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time
Reflections on Today's Readings:

FOCUS: With God's grace, let us follow as faithful disciples. Today we consider the encounter between Jesus and Simon, who abandons all to follow the Lord. Like Simon, we are being called little by little, day by day, to say yes to Jesus. With God's grace, let us follow as faithful disciples.

LITURGY OF THE WORD: The first reading recounts the calling of Isaiah, how the seraphim of the Lord came to him with an ember, touched his lips with it, and said, your wickedness is removed. In the second reading, Paul recounts his own calling by the Lord, and outlines the faith that has been handed on to him, which he now hands on to the Corinthians. In the Gospel, we hear the account of Jesus' calling to discipleship Simon Peter, James and John.

Faith for Kids

Have mercy on me, O God... — Psalm 51:3

"No sledding today," Mom says. "The snow is melting." But Ella slides down the hill and into a puddle. Splat! Ella is covered with mud. Now Ella is sorry she disobeyed Mom and feels like hiding. But Mom sees her. "Come inside right now," she says. Uh-oh. Ella wonders what Mom will do. After Ella is clean, Mom surprises Ella with a hug. When you sin, do you feel like hiding from God? Don't!

Let God know you are sorry. God wants you to feel His love again.

Jesus, help me be sorry for my sins.

Did you Know?

Know when words are warning signs

Some predators will use comments and conversations to groom potential victims. Be on guard any time an adult is talking to a child about sex, no matter how they're presenting it (hygiene, reproduction, etc.). Physical flattery can be another red flag — predators sometimes try to make children feel good about themselves by commenting on their physical appearance.
