First Sunday of Lent
Reflections on Today's Readings:

FOCUS: Jesus Christ freed us from the slavery of sin. As we begin Lent, our penance and fasts seem rather small in comparison with how Jesus suffered for our salvation. Our forty days does not quite compare to his forty days in the desert. We need only to call on Jesus, and he will deliver us from our sins. Each Lent presents a new opportunity to repent and grow in our relationship with the One who gave his all so we could be his.

LITURGY OF THE WORD: In the Book of Deuteronomy, Moses instructs the people to offer gifts to the Lord for their freedom from slavery in Egypt, and for God's never-ending care. In his Letter to the Romans, Paul reminds his readers that without any distinction of nationality, all who call on the name of the Lord will be saved. Luke's Gospel tells how Jesus withstood the temptations of the devil.

A Time for Combat

“The spirit immediately drove Him out into the wilderness. And He was in the wilderness for forty days, tempted by Satan.” – Marc 1:12-13

In Jesus' 40 days of solitude in the wilderness, He confronts Satan and unmasks his temptations and conquers him. Lent is a time of combat! A spiritual combat against the spirit of evil. We place ourselves decisively on the path of Jesus, the road that leads to life. Jesus' path passes through the desert, the place where the voice of God and the voice of tempter can be heard, where our destiny is truly played out, life or death. And how do we hear God's voice? We hear it in His Word. For this reason, it is important to know Scripture, because otherwise we do not know how to react to the snares of the Evil One. So read the Gospel every day! Meditate on it for a little while, for 10 minutes. And also carry it with you in your pocket or purse. The Lenten desert helps us to say “no” to worldliness, to the “idols,” it helps us to make courageous choices in accordance with the Gospel and to strengthen solidarity with others.

*How might I better rely on Scripture to follow
The example of Jesus' courage to confront evil?*

Where There is Hatred, Let Me Sow Love

FIRST SUNDAY OF LENT
HATRED IS THE GREATEST EVIL

"Hatred stirs up strife, but love covers all offenses." (Proverbs 10:2)

There is nothing more evil than hate. Long years of good work can go to waste because of a single spasm of hate. You may have spent a long time cultivating a relationship, and one day you become confused and perceive that friend is an enemy to your happiness. You suddenly explode in anger, lose control and hurt your friend verbally or physically. We hear about this every day in circumstances ranging from domestic violence to all-out war. The great mass killings of the twentieth century had hate as their root and persistent cause. If there is a nuclear holocaust that ends all life on this planet, it will not be caused by nuclear technology or by political, religious or economic disagreements. It will be caused by hate. The positive imprints of virtuous actions, the seeds of future insight and freedom planted by the work of learning, reflection and contemplation, all the positive developmental energy we accumulate in a lifetime of effort can be destroyed by hate.

Hate can create an instant hell, a nightmare of death, and a horrific awakening.

- Robert Thurman
Inner Revolution

❖ How has hatred most deteriorated my relationships and my life?

LENTEN MISSION 2019

The first night begins by joining Jesus as he journeys to Jerusalem, telling stories that point to where the real joy in life is to be found. Luke: Stories on the road is 75 minutes, performed without an intermission.

The second night Jesus proclaims the joy of the Beatitudes in the Sermon on the Mount. The sermon involves gentle interaction with members of the audience, which adds both drama and humor. Sermon is about 40 minutes. The performance is followed by Conversation with the Actor again about 40 minutes. This reflects on the experience of the first two nights, on our experience of God's Word as drama.

The final night, Hollywood vs. Faith, takes a humorous but also deeply challenging look at our struggle to live lives of real joy in the middle of a media-centered culture. He points to "three other beatitudes". This lasts about 75 minutes, it is filled with many comic anecdotes. He concludes with a summary of the mission...to a life of true joy.

Additional flyers are in the Vestibule. Please help us to promote this Lenten mission. Bring family and friends!

Cathedral Chapel of St. Vibiana parish invites you to join us for a presentation on "Enjoying a Brain Healthy Lifestyle" at 7:00 pm on Tuesday, March 19th, in the Church which is located at 923 S. La Brea.

Our presenter, Dr. Cordula Dick-Muehlke, is well-known for her work with people affected by Alzheimer's disease and their families. Recognized in 2011 as the Dementia Care Professional of the Year by the Alzheimer's Foundation of America, she is an impassioned advocate for people with this challenging disease. She will discuss what Alzheimer's is, risk factors for the disease, strategies to reduce your risk and conclude with the opportunity for questions. For more information please contact the parish office at 323-930-5976 or via email at parish@cathedralchapel.org.

Ministry equips us to deepen our love for God and share our faith...

ALMSGIVING, PRAYER, FASTING, AND TEMPTATION - As we begin our season of fasting, prayer, and almsgiving, the reading from Deuteronomy reminds us of our duty of almsgiving, that we set [our offerings] before the Lord, [our] God, [and] shall bow down in [God's] presence (Deuteronomy 26:10). The reading from Romans refers us to our prayer, reminding us that the word is near you, in your mouth and in your heart . . . For everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved (Romans 10:8, 13). These are comforting words, and encourage us to ask God for what we need and to aid us in our prayer. Finally, the Gospel of Luke shows us a fasting Jesus, who was tempted as we are, and who knows what it means to be human. Someone once said that temptation arises when you're tired and weary, and the devil comes along and makes a perfectly reasonable suggestion. Jesus shows us that, with his help, we too can overcome our temptations, reasonable as they may sound. — Copyright (c) J. S. Paluch Co.

Faith for Kids

...love your enemies, and pray for those who persecute you... — Matthew 5:44

It's easy to love people we like. The challenge is to love the unlikeable. Jesus asks us to love our enemies: Love the person who makes you upset and angry; love the person who hurt your feelings; pray for the bully. It may seem odd at first, but remember, only a light can get rid of darkness; only love can get rid of hate.

Jesus, help me shine your love today, especially for those in need.

Did you Know?

Trained adults can take steps to prevent suspicion

The Protecting God's Children program is in place to raise awareness about behaviors of adults that may indicate a threat to the safety of children and young people. Through this program, trained adults learn how to prevent abuse from happening, in part by taking steps to eliminate suspicious behaviors, such as being alone with a young person. Creating a culture of openness and transparency goes a long way towards alleviating concerns of inappropriate behavior by adults, and helps children feel safe in their environment.

FACT OF LIFE

Hope for the Unborn in Utah

(LifeSiteNews) The Utah legislature gave its final approval Thursday to legislation that will ban abortions sought specifically due to prenatal diagnosis of Down Syndrome, clearing the way for it to be signed into law by the governor. ... "A Down Syndrome diagnosis shouldn't be a death sentence," Pro-Life Utah said in support of the bill. "Selective abortion, for any reason, is the very definition of eugenics. History warns us that this is a very dangerous road to take [...] Utah needs to draw a defining line in the sand and declare loudly to the world, "We will not go there!" Dear Jesus, during this Lenten season, let us redouble our efforts to promote the sanctity of life, as we meditate on your great sacrifice on the cross, the sacrifice that gave us the hope of life eternal.
