Fifth Sunday of Lent
Reflections on Today's Readings:

FOCUS: God is always doing something new – he is mercy and forgiveness for those who seek him. Today's psalm speaks of the great things that God has done. Among them is his giving us the promise to forgive all who come before him with true contrition and who seek his mercy. Through and in Jesus we have the ability to do this, and when we do, we allow God to “re-create” in us – to do something new in us.

LITURGY OF THE WORD: Isaiah assures the people of Israel that the Lord is doing something new. Saint Paul professes to the community at Philippi that he considers all things as loss in comparison to knowing Jesus Christ and pursuing the goal of attaining the resurrection of the dead. In the Gospel, Jesus saves from stoning, and forgives, the woman caught in adultery.

A TIME TO BE FORGIVEN
5th Sunday of Lent

“We had to celebrate and rejoice, because this brother of yours was dead and has come to life; he was lost and has been found.”
- Luke 15:32

Jesus' parable of the prodigal son and loving father presents the true face of God, who with open arms deals with sinners with tenderness and compassion. The parable manifests the infinite love of God who enfolds in a close embrace the son who has been found. The path to return home is the path of hope and new life. God always expects us to resume our journey, awaiting us with patience, seeing us when we are still a long way off, running to meet us, embracing us, kissing us, forgiving us. That is how God the Father is. God's forgiveness cancels the past and regenerates us in love. When God embraces us, God forgives us and forgets the past. When we convert and let ourselves be re-encountered by God, reproach and sternness do not await us, because God saves us and welcomes us home again with joy and prepares a feast. This fills us with a great hope because there is no sin into which we may have fallen from which, with the grace of God, we cannot rise up again. God forgives us and forgets the past. There is never a person who cannot be recovered. No one is irrecoverable because God never stops wanting our good-even when we sin! When I have most experienced God's forgiveness and loving memory.

Ministry equips us to deepen our love for God and share our faith...

LENT 2019 - Lent begins with Ash Wednesday, which fell on Wednesday, March 6th, this year. The Catholic Community around the world follows these general regulations during Lent.

ABSTINENCE – Is a penitential practice consisting of refraining from the consumption of meat and is to be observed by all Catholics who are 14 years of age and older. Ash Wednesday, Good Friday, and the Fridays during Lent are days of abstinence. Pastors and parents are encouraged to see that children who are not bound by the obligation to fast and abstain are led to appreciate an authentic sense of penance.

FASTING AND ABSTINENCE – In addition to abstinence, fasting is to be observed on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday by all Catholics between the ages of 18-59 years (inclusive). On days of fasting, one full meal is allowed. Two smaller meals, sufficient to maintain strength, may be taken according to one's needs, but together they should not equal another full meal. Eating between meals is not permitted, but liquids are allowed.

Note: If a person is unable to observe the above regulations due to ill health or other serious reasons, they are urged to practice other forms of self-denial that are suitable to their condition.

Faith for Kids

When Jesus saw His Mother and the disciple there whom He loved, He said to His Mother, "Woman, behold, your Son." then He said to the disciple, "Behold, your Mother." - John 19:26-27

Have you ever been around someone who was really sad? Maybe you felt uncomfortable and didn't know what to say. Or maybe you said something you wish you hadn't. Being with a friend or family member who is sad is tough. But it's something we all have to do so many times in our lives. So if you need help with this, think of Mary, quietly standing by the cross. She didn't say anything. But she stayed with Jesus. Imagine how comforting it was for Jesus to see her there!

Dear Jesus, help me be a comfort to others today and always.

Did You Know?

You can support the Archdiocese's Keeping Kids Safe Campaign

The Archdiocese works to prevent abuse through our Safeguard the Children Programs on prevention and reporting, fingerprinting and background checks, and clergy formation programs. For National Child Abuse Prevention Month, the Office of Safeguard the Children has created the 2019 Child Abuse Prevention Resource Packet. The packet includes pinwheel stickers, decorations and children's activities as well as informative articles to help parents and other caring adults learn about how to protect our children and youth. This campaign provides another opportunity to transform awareness into action as we affirm every child's right for a life filled with hope, health and happiness.
