Reflections on Today's Readings:

FOCUS: The Holy Spirit will teach us and remind us of what Jesus taught. Jesus assures us in the Gospel that he will dwell within us, and the Holy Spirit will teach us and remind us of what he taught. This is good news for us, because it means we are not making this Christian journey alone, two thousand years removed from a period in human time. We are today, like the early Church of Jerusalem, taught and guided by the Spirit. We need only to listen and have faith in his working in us.

LITURGY OF THE WORD: In the first reading, a letter from the Church in Jerusalem is delivered to the Gentiles in Antioch, Syria and Cilicia. In it they are assured that they are under no burdens of the Mosaic law. Revelation gives us a vision of splendor: the holy city Jerusalem. Jesus, in the Gospel, tells his disciples that he and the Father will dwell within those who love him and keep his word. He also promises to send the Holy Spirit as an Advocate.

Faith for Kids

Know that the Lord is God; He made us, His we are; His people, the flock He tends. - Psalm 100:3

God knows that His children are a little bit like sheep because we sometimes lose our way. Just as sheep wander away from their flock and get into trouble, we sometimes break God's commandments and fall into sin. Jesus, the Good Shepherd, will do anything to rescue us if we call on Him. How do we know He will do that? We know because Jesus gave up His life for us by dying on the cross. That's how much Jesus loves us!

Jesus, Good Shepherd, guide me today.

Did You Know?

What constitutes a concern worth reporting?

Parents have a responsibility to report concerns they have about another person's behaviors or actions that could put their children — or any children — at risk. These concerns are anything that makes the parent uneasy or uncomfortable, or anything that a child reports made them feel uneasy or uncomfortable. Some examples of seemingly little things that can be worth reporting include: A teacher covering her glass classroom door with artwork, eliminating the ability to see into the classroom from the hall; a youth ministry icebreaker activity, where teens have to pass a mint candy from person to person using only toothpicks in their mouth, despite the discomfort of some participants. For a copy of the VIRTUS® article "What is a 'Concern' that I Should Communicate?" visit <http://www.la-archdiocese.org/org/protecting/Pages/VIRTUS-Current-Online-Articles.aspx>.

Fact of Life:

May is National

Foster Care Awareness Month

From the Office of Life, Justice and Peace, Archdiocese of Los Angeles.

There are currently 34,000 children in foster care in Los Angeles County, the highest number in the nation.

21% of foster children in LA are under the age of 2. Upon aging out of foster care without a family, 1/3 of youth will become homeless, 1/5 will become incarcerated, and 70% of trafficked youth come from the foster care system.

Every child deserves a loving family. We are adopted sons and daughters of God, and we know that the family is the basic building block of society. These kids need the love of a family to support them and nurture them to their full potential.
