

THIS WEEK: SATURDAY, AUGUST 31st / SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 1st, 2019
22ND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
REFLECTIONS ON TODAY'S READINGS:

FOCUS: Everyone who humbles himself will be exalted. Baptism is our invitation to the eternal banquet of the kingdom. But like all invitations, it comes with an RSVP. Our response is found in the way we live our lives, in our gratitude for all that God has done, in our desire to serve God by serving others, and in our life of prayer and worship.

LITURGY OF THE WORD: Sirach describes humility as the hallmark of those who find favor with God. The Letter to the Hebrews reminds the community that Jesus is the mediator of a new covenant. In the Gospel, Jesus uses a parable to convey the importance of humility for his disciples.

Did You Know?

The right kind of touch is important for children

Children are often naturally affectionate and trusting, and this can lead to unexpected hugs or touches that indicate their love for the adults in their lives. For adults who are aware that some touching can be inappropriate or can appear to be a boundary violation even though it was initiated by the child, it can be difficult to respond in these instances. Healthy, appropriate touch is important for children. Use these instances as teachable moments where you can affirm your affection in words and guide an appropriate touch by description and example. Some examples of this could include patting a child on the shoulder or back, high fives, holding hands out of the classroom or when crossing the street, or helping a young child tie his shoelaces. As part of our commitment, the Archdiocese has updated the www.archla.org/protect website with valuable information and resources on how to protect our children and young people from child sexual abuse. For more information, read the VIRTUS® article "The Healing Power of Touch, Part II" at <http://www.la-archdiocese.org/org/protecting/Pages/VIRTUS-Current-Online-Articles.aspx>.

Faith for Kids

Be merciful, just as your Father is merciful... Forgive and you will be forgiven. - Luke 6:36, 37

Have you ever broken something that belonged to someone else? Maybe it was something valuable or that couldn't be replaced. It feels awful, doesn't it? You might also have been afraid of the anger and punishment that would follow. But wait a minute. What if the person hugged you and forgave you instead? If something like that has ever happened to you (and it happens to all of us at some point), you know how wonderful mercy can feel. God the Father's mercy is so great, He sent His only Son to save the world. How will you be merciful today?

"Dear Lord, help me be as forgiving and merciful as you are"

RCIA - AN AMAZING
JOURNEY OF FAITH

FOR YOU

OR SOMEONE YOU KNOW

Are you thinking about becoming a Catholic? Do you know someone who might be thinking about becoming a Catholic? The process through which adults are fully initiated into the Catholic faith community is called RCIA, the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults.

We become a member of the Catholic faith by truly experiencing the life, the self-understanding, and the activities of the community itself. Please consider experiencing this process or inviting someone to join us for this amazing journey of faith. Sessions take place Thursday evenings beginning late September. Call Jonette @ 310-670-2243 or email her at jonetteauch@gmail.com for information.

Did You Know?

The right kind of touch is important for children

Children are often naturally affectionate and trusting, and this can lead to unexpected hugs or touches that indicate their love for the adults in their lives. For adults who are aware that some touching can be inappropriate or can appear to be a boundary violation even though it was initiated by the child, it can be difficult to respond in these instances. Healthy, appropriate touch is important for children. Use these instances as teachable moments where you can affirm your affection in words and guide an appropriate touch by description and example. Some examples of this could include patting a child on the shoulder or back, high fives, holding hands out of the classroom or when crossing the street, or helping a young child tie his shoelaces. As part of our commitment, the Archdiocese has updated the www.archla.org/protect website with valuable information and resources on how to protect our children and young people from child sexual abuse. For more information, read the VIRTUS® article "The Healing Power of Touch, Part II" at <http://www.la-archdiocese.org/org/protecting/Pages/VIRTUS-Current-Online-Articles.aspx>.

Faith for Kids

Be merciful, just as your Father is merciful... Forgive and you will be forgiven. - Luke 6:36, 37

Have you ever broken something that belonged to someone else? Maybe it was something valuable or that couldn't be replaced. It feels awful, doesn't it? You might also have been afraid of the anger and punishment that would follow. But wait a minute. What if the person hugged you and forgave you instead? If something like that has ever happened to you (and it happens to all of us at some point), you know how wonderful mercy can feel. God the Father's mercy is so great, He sent His only Son to save the world. How will you be merciful today?

"Dear Lord, help me be as forgiving and merciful as you are"
