25TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
REFLECTIONS ON TODAY'S READINGS:

FOCUS: Jesus instructs us to serve only one master. Many things compete for our attention on a daily basis. Some of the things we do, we do in light of our faith and in the service of God; other things may draw us away from both. Jesus exhorts us to pay attention to our actions and our motives, for we cannot serve both God and the things of this world.

LITURGY OF THE WORD: From the prophet Amos comes a warning to the people of the Northern Kingdom of Israel that God sees those who take advantage of or mistreat the poor and needy, and He no longer will not forget a thing they have done. In Paul's Letter to Timothy, he asks for prayers for those in authority - that they be pleasing to the Lord. In Luke's Gospel, Jesus tells the parable of the dishonest steward, and says that a person must be trustworthy in matters big and small. For no one can serve both God and mammon.

Second Reading -- Pursue righteousness, devotion, faith, love, patience, and gentleness (1 Timothy 6:11-16).

Did You Know?

The Archdiocese is participating in an independent compensation program for victim-survivors of sexual abuse of minors by priests. The Archdiocese of Los Angeles, along with five other dioceses in California, will be participating in an independent program to offer persons who were victims of abuse as minors by diocesan priests, access to compensation as well as access to counseling services if they chose. Those harmed many years ago and barred from filing lawsuits because of civil statutes of limitations will be eligible to make claims under the Independent Compensation Program for Victim-Survivors of Sexual Abuse of Minors by Priests. The Archdiocese's participation in the program is part of a long-standing commitment to supporting and compensating victims of abuse, the protection of children and the vulnerable, and the prevention of abuse and misconduct in Catholic parishes, schools and ministries. Nationally recognized mediators and private compensation program administrators, Kenneth R. Feinberg and Camille S. Biros will administer the program.

Faith for Kids

The community of believers was on one heart and mind, and no one claimed that any of his possessions was his own, but they had everything in common. - Acts 4:32

In the early Church, many members lived in communities together. They worshipped together. They shared everything—food, clothing, whatever they had. If anyone needed something, the community just share what they had, no questions asked. These new Christians were devoted to the teachings of Jesus, especially His love for the poor. But they were persecuted terribly for their faith. Still, many people saw their amazing love and generosity and decided to join these Christian communities. This is how the Church grew—because of the goodness of these courageous early Christians.

Jesus, give me courage to follow your ways.
