27TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
REFLECTIONS ON TODAY'S READINGS:

FOCUS: Lay hold of eternal life by keeping the commandments, and pursuing noble goods. The readings today are a challenge for all believers to consider the eternal consequences of our actions. God, in His infinite love, both calls us to Himself and gives us the freedom to accept or reject His invitation. We can allow comfort to make us complacent, or we can pursue noble goods and be persuaded by the One who was raised from the dead.

LITURGY OF THE WORD: In the first reading from Amos, we hear a warning about comfort and wanton revelry leading to complacency, resulting in exile. Saint Paul writes to Timothy, instructing him to lay hold for eternal life by keeping the commandments and pursuing the goods such as love, faith and righteousness. In the Gospel, Jesus tells the parable of the rich man and Lazarus, who both receive what is just in eternal life.

Did You Know?

Understanding community grooming

Like the psychological grooming we discussed last week, community grooming is another way a predator inserts himself into the life of his child victim. In community grooming, the predator develops a rapport with the community surrounding his victims, appearing to be kind, generous, and caring. This can often lead to increased levels of trust from adults around the victim, and increased access to the victim. The predator uses manipulation and lies to build a false image of good, which makes it harder for victims to come forward to express discomfort or report an allegation. For more information on community grooming, get a copy of the VIRTUS® article "The Stockholm Syndrome and Victims of Abuse, Part II" at <http://www.la-archdiocese.org/org/protecting/Pages/VIRTUS-Current-Online-Articles.aspx>.

Fact of Life - lifesitenews.com by Martin Barillas 9/16/19, Rome

When a 26-year-old bride was told during the first trimester of her pregnancy that doctors had revealed a malignant tumor in her brain, she refused to endanger her baby with the prescribed cancer treatment or an abortion.

Angela Bianco and her husband sought solutions other than the prescribed chemotherapy. Through prayer and help from friends, they were able to obtain treatment outside Italy that has yet to be authorized in their home country. Nearly five years later, Angela and her little girl are well.

"I didn't want to abort and think about saving myself," Angela said. "My duty was to give birth." She affirmed in an interview with Famiglia Cristiana that she and her husband and daughter experienced a miracle that is "part science, the work of God, and Padre Pio." Padre Pio, or St. Pio di Pietrelcina, was an Italian friar, stigmatist, and mystic who has become one of the most popular saints of the Church. In gratitude, Angela's daughter was baptized with the name Francesca Pia, partly in honor of the revered Franciscan friar.

Faith for Kids

But whoever lives the truth comes to the light, as that his works may be clearly seen as done in God. - John 3:21

When was the last time you made something all by yourself? Creating something with your own hands can give you great joy. St. Joseph is called The Worker because he worked as a carpenter. Back when Jesus was a boy, all work was done by hand. Can you imagine building things without electricity or computers or power tools. That had to be difficult, and it probably took a long time. But that's what Joseph did to provide for his family. I'm sure Joseph felt great joy almost every day, as his work was clearly done for God.

Good Jesus, guide my hands and heart to bring joy to my family.
