REFLECTIONS ON TODAY'S READINGS:

FOCUS: Relationship with the Lord requires us to recognize our dependence on Him. While pride is the root of much sin, humility is the soil in which a life of virtue can grow. The more we recognize our need for God and His mercy, the more we can open ourselves up to the grace He wishes to pour out on us. It is when we think ourselves independent of God that we close ourselves off to His saving mercy and grace.

LITURGY OF THE WORD: Sirach says that the Lord is a God of justice who is not partial, but does hear the cries and prayers of the most vulnerable. Saint Paul writes that he has kept the faith and looks forward to the crown of righteousness, noting that it was the Lord who rescued him from evil. In today's Gospel, Jesus tells the parable of the Pharisee and tax collector who go to the Temple to pray, noting the justification of the tax collector due to his humility.

To carry with you on the way: I heard a loud shout from the throne, saying, "Look, God's home is now among His people! He will live with them, and they will be His people. God Himself will be with them. He will wipe every tear from their eyes, and there will be no more death or sorrow or crying or pain. All these things are gone forever." (Revelation 21:3-4) We will be His people. These are comforting words, echoing passages from the prophet Jeremiah: He will be our God, and we will be His people. We are not unknown to God. We have forged a long relationship with Him, and He loved us so much He sent His Son to dwell among us. No matter what happens, no matter what sorrow or grief feels overwhelming to us in the moment, that truth remains: He is our God, and we are His. No matter what we're feeling, He will not leave us alone.

Did You Know?

Our community of faith prays for the healing of all those who have been abused

As members of the Catholic community, each of us can contribute to the healing of those harmed by abuse, especially by remembering victim-survivors in our prayers. We pray for those harmed by someone, whether in church, family, school or community, confident that healing is possible, and mindful that we can all work to prevent further abuse. Inspired by the vision of a victim-survivor, the Archdiocese of Los Angeles has created a prayer and information card as a tangible symbol of outreach and support to those in need. Please join in this effort and our shared hope that the resources and prayer on the card will reach those in need to bring the healing light of Christ to the darkest places of pain. The bilingual prayer card and posters, including information on how to report abuse, have been distributed to all parishes and are available for download at archla.org/support.

I am going away and I will come back to you. - John 14:28

Do you ever wish you'd been born in the time of Jesus? That you could have sat at His feet and listened to His stories? See Him perform miracles? That would have been wonderful! Yet Jesus comes to us today in many ways, especially in the Sacraments. He's so close, all you need to do is whisper His name. Jesus is with you always.

Dear Jesus, when everything is going wrong, please fill me with your peace.

Fact of Life
Bridges of Mercy for Healing after Abortion

All of us are sinners. Yet Pope Francis calls mercy a "bridge that connects God and man, opening our hearts to the hope of being loved forever despite our sinfulness" (MV 2).

The Holy Father also reminds us, "As the Father loves, so do His children. Just as He is merciful, so we are called to be merciful to each other" (MV 9).

*Life is a gift from God and so is His mercy.
May we cherish and promote both!*

"Through the Rosary the faithful receive abundant grace, as though from the very hands of the Mother of the Redeemer." (St. John Paul II)

October is the month of the Rosary
The family that prays together stays together.
