SOLEMNITY OF OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST, KING OF THE UNIVERSE
REFLECTIONS ON TODAY'S READINGS:

FOCUS: Today we celebrate Jesus, preeminent over all creation yet always bestowing his love and forgiveness. Jesus, the image of the invisible God, is preeminent over all creation and head of the Church. On this solemnity, we recognize that Jesus Christ is King, but we also know that our loving Savior shows us compassion and mercy, as he showed to the good thief.

LITURGY OF THE WORD: In the first reading, the tribes of Israel anoint David, their shepherd, as king. In the reading from Colossians, Paul writes of the incredible glory of Jesus, firstborn of all creation, head of the Church, and preeminent over all creation. In the Gospel, Jesus shows his compassion and mercy by assuring the good thief of his entrance into his kingdom.

Fact of Life - I would like to say a special word to women who have had an abortion. The Church is aware of the many factors which may have influenced your decision, and she does not doubt that in many cases it was a painful and even shattering decision. The wound in your heart may not yet have healed. Certainly what happened was and remains terribly wrong. But do not give in to discouragement and do not lose hope. Try rather to understand what happened and face it honestly.
Pope John Paul II, Evangelium Vitae

Did You Know?

Building active listening skills with children

Building your active listening skills with the children in your life can help you communicate more effectively with them, and it can also clue you in to any suspicious or potentially dangerous relationships in their lives. Active listening lets the speaker know that you have heard, understood, and valued what he or she said. Often, children don't feel this way, but with a few easy tactics, you can change that, building a relationship of trust and respect. As an active listener, be sure to make eye contact while the child is speaking. Ask follow-up questions and check in to make sure you both understand what's being said. Avoid "yes or no" questions and instead ask open-ended questions that will keep the conversation going. For more tips, get a copy of the VIRTUS® article "Children are to be Seen and Heard," at <http://www.la-archdiocese.org/org/protecting/Pages/VIRTUS-Current-Online-Articles.aspx>.

St. Margaret's Center Christmas Program

It's time for the annual St. Margaret's Center Christmas Program and your generous support is needed! We are preparing a magical day for approximately 1,000 low-income children and their parents from "LAX" communities. Please bring your toys from the Giving Tree back to the parish by December 10th. If you'd like to purchase toys from Amazon, go to "Find Someone's List" and enter "St. Margaret's Center" to find our wish list. Besides new toys and cash donations, there is a need for adult volunteers, both for the event day, December 14th, and the four days preceding the event. To register as a volunteer, and for more info, please go to our website: <https://sites.google.com/site/smcxmas/home> If you have any questions, you can call 310-672-2208, or email smcxmas@gmail.com. Thank you for your support!

Faith for Kids

And he left forth his people with joy; with shouts of joy, his chosen ones. - Psalm 105:43
Sometimes, sad things happen in our lives: we might get sick or lose someone we love. We might have to move and leave our friends behind. The thing to remember is that God is always with us, loving us and caring for us. As long as we look to Him, He will carry us through the hard times. Remember that on the other side of the hurt you might be feeling, there will be a time to smile because God had been holding you the whole time.
God, thank you for holding me in your loving arms.
