REFLECTIONS ON TODAY'S READINGS:

FOCUS: No one is lost to the love of God. In love, God created the world and all things in it. His love for all souls moves Him to forgive sins so all can repent and know His love. Jesus Christ is the embodiment of His love, and comes to invite and empower each of us, especially the lost, to turn back to God and know the joy of His mercy.

LITURGY OF THE WORD: In the Book of Wisdom, the author says that God loves all things because they are His, and He overlooks sin so that all may repent. In the second reading, Paul offers prayer and encouragement to the Thessalonians in their efforts to glorify the Lord. In Luke's Gospel, Jesus empowers Zacchaeus to return to right relationship with Him.

Independent Compensation Program for Victim-Survivors of Abuse by Diocesan Clergy (ICP)

As part of our long-standing commitment to provide pastoral care and to support the healing process for victim-survivors, the Archdiocese of Los Angeles, along with five other dioceses in California, is participating in the new Independent Compensation Program by the Archdiocese of Los Angeles, Diocese of Fresno, Diocese of Orange, Diocese of Sacramento, Diocese of San Bernardino, and Diocese of San Diego for Victim-Survivors of Sexual Abuse of Minors by Priests (ICP). The ICP is administered independently of the Church by Kenneth Feinberg and Camille Biros, widely recognized as premier dispute resolution administrators in the country. The program is now accepting registrations from any person who has been sexually abused as a minor by diocesan priests of the participating dioceses, no matter when that abuse might have occurred. Funding for the program in our Archdiocese will come from self-insured reserves, monies set aside for this purpose. We pray that this new program might provide another avenue toward healing and hope.

For more information on the ICP, please visit: www.californiadiocesesicp.com.

PRAY FOR VOCATIONS!
SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 3RD

Almighty and eternal God,
in your unfailing love you provide ministers for your Church.

We pray for those whom you call to serve the Church of St. Anastasia as priests

Faith for Kids

Rather, when you hold a banquet, invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, the blind; blessed indeed will you be because of their inability to repair you. - Luke 14: 13-14

Sometime today, look around your bedroom. Can you find five things you haven't touched or played with in the last week?

Then think about kids who don't have those things. Imagine how happy you could make them by donating a few of your own toys. And imagine how good you'll feel by sharing what you have with others.

God, help me to be generous!

Fact of Life

What Saving Babies Looks Like From a Sidewalk View

We arrived at Planned Parenthood and found a young woman handing out pamphlets to those driving into the clinic and quietly praying over each individual as they entered the building. We greeted her on the sidewalk and exchanged names. In our conversation, we find out this twenty-one-year-old has been praying on the frontlines — in the various states, she has lived in — since she was eight years old. Wow, I wanted to reach out and hug her with pride, all while bowing my head in shame. It's taken me forty-some years to stand alongside her. - Life.Site
