SECOND SUNDAY OF ADVENT
 REFLECTIONS ON TODAY'S READINGS:

FOCUS: A Savior is coming who will bring justice and peace to the faithful. God is calling out to us – through His prophets and Apostles, through His Holy Word, through His Son whom He sent to dwell among us – that He has come to save us. His kingdom is one of justice and peace. Will we listen to these holy voices crying out to us in the desert of worldly divisions and distractions?

LITURGY OF THE WORD: Isaiah tells of the justice and peace that shall reign in the kingdom of God. Saint Paul prays that God will give the community the ability to be in harmony and united with Christ. In the Gospel, John the Baptist exhorts his listeners to turn away from their sins and be baptized, for the one who is coming after him is even mightier.

First Reading — The barren deserts will rejoice and flower (Isaiah 35:1-6a, 10).
Psalm — Lord, come and save us (Psalm 146).
Second Reading — Be patient, for the coming of the Lord is as sure as the rain (James 5:7-10).

Saint Anastasia was born in 281 A.D. and became a perfect symbol of peace, humanity, and solidarity. Her Feast Day is December 25th. She is a symbol of dialogue and collaboration. In her spirit, and in the spirit of love, we welcome all to the Catholic Community of St. Anastasia Catholic Church.

We need people, individuals, and families to volunteer to participate in this liturgical activity. Your presence and participation in this activity would be a great blessing. The sign-up poster is in the Vestibule this weekend.

Fact of Life - New 'Pro-Life Kids' book teaches children the value of every human life. A new book has just been released addressing the hard issue of abortion — but what makes this book special is that it's for children. The new book, Pro-Life Kids, teaches young children the value of each human life and age-appropriately explains what abortion is. Not only that, but it encourages children to stand up for the voiceless and to defend the unborn. www.liveaction.org

Did You Know? Independent Compensation Program for Victim-Survivors of Abuse by Diocesan Clergy (ICP)

As part of our long-standing commitment to provide pastoral care and to support the healing process for victim-survivors, the Archdiocese of Los Angeles, along with five other dioceses in California, is participating in the Independent Compensation Program for Victim-Survivors of Sexual Abuse of Minors by Priests (ICP). The ICP is administered independently of the Church by Kenneth Feinberg and Camille Biros, widely recognized as premier dispute resolution administrators in the country. The program is accepting registrations from any person who has been sexually abused as a minor by diocesan priests of the participating dioceses, no matter when that abuse might have occurred. Funding for the program in our Archdiocese will come from self-insured reserves, monies set aside for this purpose. We pray that this new program might provide another avenue toward healing and hope. For more information on the ICP, please visit www.californiadiocesescip.com.

Second Sunday of Advent: Welcome one another, then, as Christ welcomed you, for the glory of God. - Romans 15:7

Faith for Kids

Give thanks to the Lord, for He is good, for His mercy endures forever. - Psalm 118:1

It's easy to see the wonderful things God has created for you. Maybe it's snowing where you are right now, or maybe the sun is shining. Can you thank God for these gifts? What about animals? Do you have a favorite? Why not to thank /god for it? You can thank God for all the earth, which He has made because He loves us. God wants us to have a planet where we can thrive. When we take care of what He's given us, we are showing our praise and thanksgiving to god for the beautiful gift of our earth. -

God, thank you for the beautiful earth.
