 REFLECTIONS ON TODAY'S READINGS:

FOCUS: The life of a disciple calls for repentance and courage. Jesus fulfils all prophecy and brings light to our darkness. He calls his disciples out of their way of life — from fishermen to fishers of men. He calls us to follow him, too, so as to bring light, truth and goodness into a world that needs repentance.

LITURGY OF THE WORD: In the first reading, Isaiah writes of the day when all gloom is gone. Light will come to the people who walked in darkness, and they will rejoice. Saint Paul urges the Corinthians to have no divisions among [them]. In Matthew's Gospel, Jesus, walking by the Sea of Galilee, calls Simon, Andrew, James and John to follow him. The brothers leave everything and follow Jesus.

MATTHEW 4:20

BEAUTY AND TRUTH

Today the poetry of Isaiah washes over us with stunning beauty:

Anguish has taken wing, dispelled is darkness:
for there is no gloom where but now there was distress.

Isaiah's lines enchant us with their music as well as with their meaning. Haven't we all felt burdened by gloom and distress? Don't we all long for an end to darkness? Isaiah promises that God's majestic strength crushes our anguish, blowing away our troubles on a breeze. These words are lovely, but what do they mean for us really, when our day-to-day struggles are so real? How can it be true that darkness is dispelled, when so many of us suffer terribly?

DAILY DOSES OF LIGHT

Jesus assures us: "God is light, and in him there is no darkness at all" (1 John 1:5b). But how, exactly, does God's light overcome the darkness that we still experience? Saint Paul shows us how: through the cross. Today's reading from Paul's First Letter to the Corinthians implores Jesus' followers to get along with one another, to "be united in the same mind and in the same purpose." We believe that two thousand years ago, Jesus saved the world and destroyed darkness; but until Jesus comes again, we must unite as the Body of Christ to continue pushing back the gloom of sin and division. As followers of Jesus, we work against these evils in simple ways. We intentionally attempt genuine conversation with a person we find irritating; we ignore gossip and refuse to talk behind someone's back; we befriend an awkward or needy individual. These daily doses of light bring hope to our world, which is both redeemed and not yet finished. Jesus wants our help. Like Peter, James, and John in today's Gospel, we are called by Christ to participate in salvation. Jesus chooses us, calls us, and invites us to accompany him—and imitate him—as we live in, and wait for, the Light of the World.

THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

SEEKING THE LIGHT - In today's readings we find ourselves being drawn more deeply into relationship with Jesus. We are getting to know more about him as we see how he struggles with the news of his cousin John's arrest. His first response is to withdraw, to leave Nazareth and go to Capernaum. There he is perhaps both consoled and challenged by the words of Isaiah that Matthew quotes: "the people who sit in darkness have seen a great light, / on those dwelling in a land overshadowed by death / light has arisen" (Matthew 4:16). Jesus contemplates his cousin's death, perhaps his own death, and he seeks the light. Maybe it is these words of Isaiah that move Jesus out of his withdrawal and into action. He begins to preach, teach, cure disease and illness, and proclaim the gospel of the kingdom. Copyright © J. S. Paluch

Fact of Life

Cristiano Ronaldo, Real Madrid soccer star, single father, and current Guinness World Record holder for the most liked person on Facebook — he has over 107 million likes — was the victim of an attempted abortion. In her biography, "Mother Courage," Ronaldo's mother Dolores Aveiro says that the star athlete was "an unwanted child," and she asked doctors to abort him. The doctors, however, refused her request, so she attempted a DIY abortion. Obviously her plan failed and today she says, "Everything I have, I owe to [Cristiano]." ### Did You Know?

Evaluate relationships based on context

We may think we know enough about appropriate boundaries in relationships, but boundaries are complicated, even for adults. Children rely on adults to define what is appropriate and what isn't, in the context of the relationship.

For example, some touches are "safe" or "unsafe" depending on who is in the relationship — a parent, a stranger, a teacher, etc. For more information, get a copy of the VIRTUS® article "Keeping in Touch with Important Distinctions" from <http://www.la-archdiocese.org/org/protecting/Pages/VIRTUS-Current-Online-Articles.aspx>.

Annual Donation Statement Information

In January, the parish office will be sending donation statements to those who donated $100 or more during 2019. IRS rules require a written acknowledgement only for individual gifts of $250 or more, but the statements are a reminder to claim the deduction for those who itemize. Donations will be included in your annual donation statement only if they are delivered via the collection basket or to the Parish Office by December 31, or if postmarked on or before December 31. Donations will otherwise be credited to 2020 contributions. If you have a record of contributions not shown in your statement, please contact the parish office at 310-670-2243.

Third Sunday in Ordinary Time - Send in the Clones?

In St. Paul's time, the church was so new that everyone remembered how they came to the faith. It seems that some people in Paul's time actually boasted about who baptized them. They acted as if they were better Christians because of the person whose preaching first attracted them. Paul, of course, would have no part in those rivalries. In fact, you can almost hear Paul laughing when he talks about people who consider Christ as just another leader of one of the factions. Christ should be the sign of unity for all Christians, not just one congregation. While no one says they want to divide the body of Christ, I'm sure you know someone who thinks the only way to have a unified Church is for everyone to pray the same way they do. Yet even Paul did not expect all believers to be clones of one another. He frequently wrote about people having many different gifts. Those differences are necessary; we need all the gifts that the Spirit gives us. So what can we do to help unify the Church? First, do what Jesus himself did—pray for unity in the Church (John 17:20-21). Pray that you come to know what your own gifts are, have the courage to use them for the Church, and appreciate the gifts of others. Second, Paul was very aware of his own weaknesses. Without weakness, how can we experience God's strength? Instead of looking down on those with whom we disagree, look up to see what God may be revealing to you through that person's differences. ### Faith for Kids

...to you who have been sanctified in Christ Jesus, called to be holy, with all those everywhere who call upon the name of our Lord... — 1 Corinthians 1:2

Maggie's class was working on a project. Each student had to work alone, without helping one another or talking. They had to figure out everything on their own. It took all of them about 4 hours to finish. The next week, they worked on another project. This time they worked on teams. Helping one another, they all finished in about 2 hours. They finished in half the time because they were better when they worked together. Jesus calls us to work with others to do his Father's will. That's how we get things done!

Jesus, help me work with others today.
