FEAST OF THE PRESENTATION OF THE LORD
 REFLECTIONS ON TODAY'S READINGS:

FOCUS: Jesus Christ is the salvation prepared for all nations to see. The feast of the Presentation of the Lord invites us to celebrate the truth that Christ is the light of all nations, and the long-awaited glory of Israel. As we celebrate God's presence among us, we are invited to reflect on our calling to bring his redemptive light into our world.

LITURGY OF THE WORD: In the first reading, the prophet Malachi describes the one who will prepare a way before the Lord when he comes to purify his people. The author of Hebrews describes how Jesus came to share in flesh and blood like God's children so as to expiate the sins of the people. In the Gospel, Jesus is taken by Mary and Joseph to be presented in the Temple; he is recognized by Simeon and Anna as the child to all who were awaiting the redemption of Jerusalem.

The Presentation of the Lord:

Today's feast is both magnificent and mysterious: magnificent because the very first contemporaries of Jesus begin to recognize him as Christ, the anointed Savior of the world; mysterious, because this King is still a child, an obscure boy obedient to his earthly parents. The prophet Malachi—living and dying before the coming of Christ—points toward the arrival of the Messiah and encourages God's people to prepare themselves by living generous, holy lives. The Letter to the Hebrews—written after Jesus' ministry, death, and resurrection—renews the prophetic call to holiness, reminding us that the Lord will always help us: "Because he himself was tested through what he suffered, he is able to help those who are being tested." The Gospel reading overflows with examples of joyful men and women living God's call to holiness. Mary, Joseph, Simeon, and Anna show us, in their own ways, how to love Christ.

THE LIST GOES ON - Today's readings reflect on something close to the heart of every human person: the fulfillment of our deepest desires. Without exception, each of us feels unfulfilled in some way. Despite advances in law, technology, and medicine, every person experiences the frustration of "not yet" or "not enough." Our hearts always want more. God plants this desire in our hearts. God knows how we ache. What most of us fail to believe, deep down, is that God alone satisfies all our longing. We know, theoretically, that the Creator of the universe provides everything we need, but we could all use more quality time with God to consider the question, "What exactly do I need to be happy, Lord?" Perhaps we can spend more time in prayer and service, asking the Lord to show us what is truly important in life.

ALWAYS READY FOR JESUS - We often think, "Once I get this, or once that happens, then I will be happy." But the Gospel shows a better way. All four adults in today's Gospel long deeply for the Messiah and "the consolation of Israel" he will bring. Human temptation might obsess over the promise of future peace and prosperity, leaving only anxiety and resentment for present suffering. But Mary, Joseph, Simeon, and Anna leave the saving of the world to God: for their part, they focus on Jesus. Each of them keeps busy with daily details of the various lifestyles they have chosen. Mary and Joseph concern themselves with raising a family, while Simeon and Anna dedicate their lives to prayer in the temple. They find peace enough in fulfilling the obligations of their stations in life, maintaining a lively prayer life to be attentive to God's action in the world. In today's Gospel, their focus is literally and spiritually on Jesus. They model for us how to be happy and holy: performing their daily duties peacefully, always ready to recognize Jesus as he reveals himself.

Did You Know?

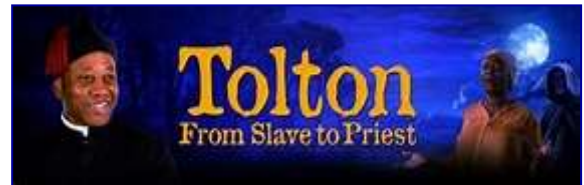

Evaluate relationships based on context

We may think we know enough about appropriate boundaries in relationships, but boundaries are complicated, even for adults. Children rely on adults to define what is appropriate and what isn't, in the context of the relationship.

For example, some touches are "safe" or "unsafe" depending on who is in the relationship — a parent, a stranger, a teacher, etc. For more information, get a copy of the VIRTUS® article "Keeping in Touch with Important Distinctions" from <http://www.la-archdiocese.org/org/protecting/Pages/VIRTUS-Current-Online-Articles.aspx>.

Fact of Life

On January 4, a newborn baby was discovered abandoned on a porch in Cherokee County in South Carolina. According to the sheriff's department, the baby girl was discovered outside a home around 8:30 a.m. Someone rang the doorbell, and the homeowner discovered the baby on the porch wrapped in a blanket. The homeowner then took the baby to a local medical facility, and from there the newborn was transferred to a local medical center and taken into emergency protective custody by the state. South Carolina, like all states, has a safe haven law which is intended to avoid the potentially tragic outcome of newborn abandonment. www.liveaction.org

Faith for Kids

...reach up, you ancient portals, that the king of glory may come in! — Psalm 24:7

Brandon needs a fish tank for his science projet but doesn't have money to buy one. Larry has a tank he can let Brandon use. "Are you crazy?" Rachel asks Larry. "he's the smartest kid in the class. Brando doesn't need help. He'll win the contest." Of course, Larry knows how smart Brando is. But he also knows that Brandon works hard and deserves to win. Larry knows what Jesus would do. Yep. He gives Brando the fish tank. Today, keep your heart open to God. He knows lots of ways you can help others.

God, I am reaching up to you, ready to help someone!

American Martyrs Parish in Manhattan Beach invites all to attend a one-act, one-man play titled Tolton: From Slave to Priest. It tells the story of the first African American Catholic priest, Fr. Augustus Tolton, who was born a slave in 1854. After he and his mother and two sisters escaped slavery during the American Civil War, they settled in Quincy, Illinois. There they joined a Catholic parish. The pastor and nuns saw a special holiness in Augustus and encouraged him to become a priest. After rejection by seminaries in the United States, he was accepted by a seminary in Rome. He was ordained a priest in 1886 and returned to the U.S. to start his service to African American Catholics in many parishes. Needless to say, he met resistance in many quarters but he persisted. His success drove him into many projects which eventually led him to an early death. Because of his holiness and service to Catholics, his cause for canonization has been presented to the Vatican and has reached the level of Venerable. Tickets for the play can be purchased on line at AmericanMartyrs.org. Presale tickets are $15.00 for adults and $20.00 at the door. Tickets for students are $10.00, both presale and at the door. The play will take place at American Martyrs Parish which is located at 700 15th St., Manhattan Beach, 90266. The play will be presented in O'Donnell Hall, on Thursday, February 13, 7:00 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. To see a short preview of the play, go to YouTube and watch <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=4vd3TGM94mE>.
