SOLEMNITY OF EASTER - SUNDAY OF THE RESURRECTION OF THE LORD!

EASTER SUNDAY OF THE RESURRECTION OF THE LORD - SEEDS OF FAITH

There is a brevity, a certain terseness, in the scripture readings for Easter Sunday. Peter's speech in Acts is built of direct, pointed sentences. Paul's letters are based on straightforward creed-like statements. Even the Gospel story only briefly recounts what will turn out to be one of the most remarkable events in human history—the resurrection of Jesus from the dead. Advertising agents call these encapsulated points of information “bullet points.” Scripture scholars call them kerygmata, or “kernels” of our faith. Actually, “kernels” or “seeds” are good terms for these statements, since throughout the Easter season, we will hear in the Acts of the Apostles, the Letters of Paul, and the Gospel accounts of the days following the Resurrection exactly how these kerygmata began to flower, how they continued to grow through the life of the early church. May these Easter “seeds” of faith serve a similar purpose for us, too, so that the life of the Risen Christ will flourish in us and through our witness in the coming days.

Greetings in the Name of our Risen Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ!

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

In a world of challenges such as we are facing today, isn't it wonderful to know that we serve a Risen Savior? Yes, we live in a world of many challenges, especially these days, presented to us via the virus, and with each passing day, it seems the challenges become more numerous. People are searching for "someone" to lead them out of despair and difficulties within their own lives, yet in reality, this is exactly the way it was in the time Jesus walked the dusty roads of Israel, prior to His crucifixion.

The people of that day thought His primary purpose was more political in nature than it was spiritual, but they were mistaken profoundly, as Jesus declared that His Kingdom was not of this world.

One cannot be watching any of the news of the day and not come away with the realization that so many people are struggling on so many levels to understand and solve the problems in their lives.

I would like to challenge each and every one today to appreciate what Christ did on the Cross, as well as the Resurrection three days later, but it is vital we remember He arose from the grave so that we could experience new life every day!

He didn't come to this earth so we could recognize the gift of His life only two days a year and then move on, but He came so that we can have victory in our own lives and families on a daily basis! No, that doesn't mean we won't have struggles and difficulties, but we can rest assured He will walk through those difficult times with us.

Let us thank God for the gift of the Risen Jesus, given once again to us! This Resurrected Jesus gives us His message of peace, as He gave to all the disciples, every time He met them. Today as we celebrate His rising from the dead, He gives the same message of peace. We pray that this peace will remain in our hearts always to make us His messengers in the world of today.

On behalf of Msgr. Cox, Fr. King, Fr. Innocent and our Parish staff, I want to wish you a Joyous Easter!

Fr. Leszek Semik

Pastor

THIS SUNDAY, APRIL 12th, 2020,
EASTER SUNDAY READINGS:

First Reading — Peter is an eyewitness: The Lord is risen (Acts 10:34a, 37-43).

Psalm — This is the day the Lord has made; let us Rejoice and be glad (Psalm 118).

(1) Second Reading — All who are baptized, set your hearts in heaven (Colossians 3:1-4) or (2) Second Reading — Christ our Passover is sacrificed; therefore let us celebrate (1 Corinthians 5:6b-8).

Gospel — Three witnesses, Mary, Peter, and John: each responds to the empty tomb (John 20:1-9) or Matthew 28:1-10 (or, at an afternoon or evening Mass, Luke 24:13-35).

We encourage all to read and reflect on the Biblical passages that will be proclaimed at Masses next week!

First Reading — All who believed were devoted to the teachings of the apostles, the communal life, the breaking of the bread, and prayer (Acts 2:42-47).

Psalm — Give thanks to the Lord for he is good, his love is everlasting (Psalm 118).

Second Reading — God has given us an undiminished inheritance, safeguarded for us in heaven (1 Peter 1:3-9).

Gospel — The risen Christ comes to his disciples with peace and the Spirit. The absent Thomas doubts (John 20:19-31).

Saint Anastasia was born in 281 A.D. and became a perfect symbol of peace, humanity, and solidarity. Her Feast Day is December 25th. She is a symbol of dialogue and collaboration. In her spirit, and in the spirit of love, we welcome all to the Catholic Community of St. Anastasia Catholic Church.

EASTER SUNDAY OF THE RESURRECTION OF THE LORD

If Christmas is the “most wonderful time of the year,” then Easter is the most joyous, glorious, awesome time of the year! Really? Today’s readings don’t exactly brim over with the kind of holiday cheer we find at Christmas—except for the Responsorial Psalm, which admittedly rings with gleeful joy. But otherwise, not so much. In the first reading from the Acts of the Apostles, Peter gives a dry, condensed rendering of the story of Jesus to a group of Gentiles in Caesarea. The Colossians reading actually does have us looking forward to glory. Most underwhelming, though, is the Gospel Proclamation of the Resurrection of Jesus Christ. When we want to hear about angels and earthquakes and trumpets and glory, we hear about a dark, silent, empty tomb. This Easter Sunday story from John’s Gospel is startling in its emptiness. Like Peter in the story, we must enter into this mystery.

THE MYSTERY OF EMPTINESS - Christ is Risen! He is Risen, indeed! This Paschal greeting is customary in Eastern Catholic and Orthodox Churches on Easter Sunday. Then there is Saint Augustine’s acclamation of joy: We are an Easter people and Alleluia is our song! However you express it, Easter is the time for rejoicing because Jesus Christ, our friend and brother, is risen from the dead. And yet, today’s scriptures are less joyful than one would expect for the most important feast in the Christian calendar. Perhaps we are being asked to look deeper into the mystery of the Resurrection, just as Peter went into the tomb to look deeper into the mystery of its emptiness. Mary Magdalene, who loved the Lord so much that she risked everything, possibly even her life, to go to the tomb before daybreak, finds the stone rolled away and assumes that someone has taken Jesus’ body. Frightened and sad, she runs to tell Peter and John. They all run back to the tomb, but what do they expect to see? Peter enters the tomb and sees. John enters, sees, and believes. But what does he believe? Scripture states, “For they did not yet understand the Scripture that he had to rise from the dead” (John 20:9). They went home, not really knowing what had happened. But John “believed” something.

SOMETHING HAPPENED - What do we believe? Somewhere between that Easter morning and Peter’s confident teaching about Jesus in the reading from the Acts of the Apostles, something (the Risen Christ) happened. Peter has evolved from his bewilderment into a witness to the Resurrection. What are we to find in the empty tomb?

Maybe the Colossians reading has an answer. By entering the empty tomb of our lives to seek the Lord, we see, we believe, we die, to be raised with Christ. “For you have died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God” (Colossians 3:3). And we will rise in glory with him.

FACT OF LIFE

Pope Francis Condemns Abortion: “Every Human Life Has Value”

“Every human life, unique and unrepeatable, it has value in itself. It has an inestimable value,” the Pope said. “The attacks on the dignity and life of people unfortunately, also continue in our era, which is the era of universal human rights. Indeed, we are faced with new threats and a new slavery, and laws don’t always protect the weakest and most vulnerable human life.”

He condemned abortion, pointing to a passage in the New Testament that recognizes unborn babies as valuable human beings. He referred to the story of Mary and Elizabeth in which the baby in Elizabeth’s womb “leaped for joy” when Mary came in carrying Jesus in her own womb.

◆ THE CHURCH IS NOW CLOSED
◆ CONFESSIONS HAVE BEEN CANCELLED UNTIL FURTHER NOTICE!

" Pope Francis reminded us in his homily on March 20, 2020 (RE: CODIV-19) of the Church's teaching on Perfect Contrition. Such contrition arises when the penitent expresses a love of God above all else, the sincere desire for forgiveness, and firm resolution to receive the Sacrament of Reconciliation, as soon as possible when available. Perfect contrition obtains the forgiveness of sins, both venial and mortal. (cf. Catechism of the Catholic Church (CCC) 1452) • The Sacrament of Reconciliation can only be offered when in danger of death or extreme extraordinary situations. We must observe social distancing, while at the same time ensuring privacy for the penitent. There are no confessions by telephone, electronic means, or by "driveup." • The faithful are to be reminded of their duty to confess serious sins once a year."

SPIRITUAL COMMUNION - "in the Eucharist 'unlike any other Sacrament, the mystery [of communion] is so perfect that it brings us to the heights of every good thing: here is the ultimate goal of every human desire, because here we attain God and God joins Himself to us in the most perfect union'..."

"...Precisely for this reason it is good to cultivate in our hearts a constant desire for the Sacrament of the Eucharist. This was the origin of the practice of 'spiritual communion', which has happily been established in the Church for centuries and recommended by saints who were masters of the spiritual life."

- Saint John Paul II

ECCLIESIA DE EUCHARISTIA, ENCYCLICAL LETTER ON THE EUCHARIST IN ITS RELATIONSHIP TO THE CHURCH

My Jesus, I believe that Thou art present in the Blessed Sacrament. I love Thee above all things and I desire Thee in my soul. Since I cannot now receive Thee Sacramentally, come at least Spiritually into my heart. As though thou wert already there, I embrace Thee and Unite myself wholly to Thee; permit not that I should ever be Separated from Thee. Amen.

"When you do not receive communion and you do not attend Mass, you can make a spiritual communion, which is a most beneficial practice; by it the love of God will be greatly impressed on you."

- Saint Teresa of Avila

Easter Sunday - Believing Is Seeing

You've heard the saying "Seeing is believing." Today's first reading seems to say just the opposite. You might think that when Jesus rose from the dead, everyone would see him. Yet Peter says that He was only visible to some of the disciples. Even they did not immediately see Him. The first thing they saw was the empty tomb, with burial cloths lying on the ground. They may have thought that if His enemies had stolen Jesus' body, they would not have removed the burial cloths; touching a corpse would have made them unclean. So it seems the empty tomb helped them to believe, and believing enabled them to see the Lord. The exception to this may be Thomas, who said he would not believe until he saw and touched Jesus' risen body. Yet when he does see the Lord, Jesus Himself declares that believing is primary when He blesses those who have not seen but still believe (John 20:31). What does this mean for us? Jesus seems to be hidden again. Yet we say that He is present in the sacraments; Baptism, Eucharist, and Confirmation show that the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit live in us. So perhaps we just need to believe in order to see Him. Mother Teresa could do it. She said she was amazed at the love she felt when she saw Jesus in the poor and the dying people of Calcutta. Maybe we need to grow in faith so that we can see Jesus in the poor, the dying, the people who annoy us, even our enemies. That is why it is so important to spread the faith; if we don't see Jesus in everyone, we may never have true peace.

Faith for Kids

Incline your ear to me, and save me.

- Psalm 71:2

Do you ever need to talk but nobody will listen?

That's frustrating, especially when you have something important to say. You could talk in a loud voice, but that might make things worse. After all, who wants the whole world hearing what's on your mind? There are times when others really are too busy to give us their undivided attention. It's not that they don't care, but you might have to wait a little while. Just remember that God always wants to hear from you. He will always listen.

Lord, help me to be patient.

God listens so closely to us that He hears our thoughts and often responds before we even take the breath to pray.
