FOURTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

IN NEED OF A SHEPHERD - For a while it was very fashionable to own pigs as pets. The publicity surrounding these creatures informed us that they were—contrary to their popular image—very clean animals, and also quite smart. Sad to say, sheep will most likely never enjoy this sort of domestic vogue. They are neither clean nor smart and are largely defenseless when left on their own, even in large numbers. The biblical image of us as the flock of sheep is not a particularly flattering one. Sheep without a shepherd are truly sad, because they most likely will perish either from their inability to fend for themselves or from their lack of defenses against predators. Placing ourselves in the heart of this unflattering image can reinforce our faith. Until we come to a profound realization of how much we need a shepherd, we cannot appreciate how deeply blessed we are to have been given a Shepherd, one who laid down his life for us and was raised to life eternal in the Spirit, so he might guide us and we might follow him in faith forever. YOUR ATTENTION PLEASE:

Our parish community prays for each other and this is our ever-changing prayer list.

It is a way for all of us to support those who are ill or in need of our prayers. New names are added to the beginning of the list, as they are received.

Would you like for our parish community to pray for you or a loved one who is ill or in need?

Call the Parish Office at 310-670-2243 to request names to be added or returned to the list. Thank you for your cooperation.

May, Mary, Mothers, and the Rosary

The month of May is here now, and with it, many celebrations.

During the month of May we Honor and Celebrate, Our Blessed Mother, Mary! We also honor and celebrate our Mothers! No better way to Honor and Celebrate, than by praying the Rosary!

“The Family That Prays Together Stays Together.” - Fr. Patrick Peyton

Throughout the centuries, people have turned to the Rosary during times of trial. But why is that?

Fr. Carl Pieber, International Director of the Miraculous Medal Association, has witnessed many instances in which the Rosary has made a real difference, and he stopped by Morning Air® to discuss the power of the Rosary. Fr. Pieber began the conversation by posing the question, “Why the Rosary? Why has this prayer been so effective, powerful, popular, and come down through the ages?” He answered,

“Because it is the only prayer in the Church that takes Scripture, dogma, our belief, the Trinity, God the Father, Jesus Christ, and Mary all in one great prayer. The mysteries of the Rosary tell us all that we believe about the Catholic Church. Many of the dogmas, all the signs, everything we have.” Fr. Pieber explained the power of the Rosary comes from the power of Mary’s intercession, and her special role as the Mother of God. “When the earliest Christians prayed to Mary, they prayed to her as the Mother of God, the Mother of Jesus Christ, their savior,” he said. “And they knew she was special, they knew she had power, they knew she was selected by God. And so they knew God wanted her to be God’s mother. ... She loves God so much that God totally works through her ... It’s just amazing how she just takes you right to God.” If you haven’t prayed the Rosary in a while — or ever — Fr. Pieber has a simple piece of advice for you and for all of us during this uncertain time: “I’m telling you, if you haven’t done it in a while, get to it and do it.”

STAY WELL, HAPPY, HEALTHY, AND SAFE! STAY HOME! GOD’S BLESSINGS TO ALL!

This Sunday, May 3rd, 2020 Fourth Sunday of Easter

First Reading — All peoples called by God will receive the gift of the Spirit if they repent and are baptized (Acts 2:14a, 36-41).

Psalms — The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want (Psalm 23).

Second Reading — Once we were like straying sheep; but now we have been returned to the shepherd, our guardian (1 Peter 2:20b-25).

Gospel — The shepherd leads the sheep out into pastures of abundant life (John 10:1-10)

We encourage all to read and reflect on the Biblical passages that will be proclaimed at Masses next week!

First Reading — All peoples called by God will receive the gift of the Spirit if they repent and are baptized (Acts 2:14a, 36-41).

Psalms — The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want (Psalm 23).

Gospel — The shepherd leads the sheep out into pastures of abundant life (John 10:1-10).

Saint Anastasia was born in 281 A.D. and became a perfect symbol of peace, humanity, and solidarity. Her Feast Day is December 25th. She is a symbol of dialogue and collaboration. In her spirit, and in the spirit of love, we welcome all to the Catholic Community of St. Anastasia Catholic Church.

SAINTS PHILIP AND JAMES

Saints Philip and St. James were both called to be one of the twelve Apostles of Jesus Christ. Their Feast Day is this Sunday, May 3rd.

St. Philip was first a disciple of St. John the Baptist, being called to God to follow him. Philip preached throughout Greece, Turkey and Syria. He preached and performed many miraculous healings. This encouraged the wife of the proconsul of Hierapolis, to convert to Christianity. The proconsul was furious and Phillip was tortured along with his sister and St. Bartholomew. Phillip and Bartholomew were then crucified upside down and Phillip continued to preach from the cross. The crowd released Bartholomew from the cross but Phillip refused his release and died on the cross. Many paintings and statues are shown with Phillip holding a cross. His relics are venerated today in the Basilica of the Apostles of Rome. His name means "lover of horses", and so he is the Patron Saint of jockeys, horse breeders and horse back riders. He is also known as the "Patron of bakers" because he was the apostle that asked Jesus where they would get enough loaves of bread to feed the crowds. He died in 80 A.D.

Saint James the Lesser, son of Alphaeus, (not James, son of Zebedee, also an Apostle who was older than James the Lesser). James' mission was to preach in Jerusalem. He was very holy and sacrificed much for his faith. He never drank wine, mead, or cider. He never ate flesh and never shaved his head, bathed or wore sandals. His knees were hard as wood from kneeling so often in prayer. He is also one of the apostles who wrote the Epistle of James to the Romans in the New Testament. James sang in Jerusalem at the first Mass that was ever sung there and later became the first Bishop of Jerusalem. On one Easter morning, the Pharisees asked St. James to tell the crowds that Jesus had deceived the world. He refused to do so and was thrown headlong into the ground. He was then stoned to death. Since the last blow to his head was with a fullers club, that became part of his symbol. He is sometimes called James the Just and many paintings show him with a fuller's long club. A fuller is one who cleans soiled wool with a long stick to rid it of impurities. St. James is the Patron Saint of pharmacists, dying people, fullers and hatters. James died in 62 A.D.

"You will show me the path to life, abounding joy in your presence..." - Psalm 16:11

Would you like to be happy? When you find the right path in your life, that's when you find your joy.

But what is the right path, and how do you find it? Jesus can show you. He always loves you, and His love will never stop. He asks for your love in return. He asks you to love others and help them when they need it. And Jesus asks others to do the same for you.

That's the path to life Jesus opened for us. Can you see how following it can bring you great joy? Think about it.

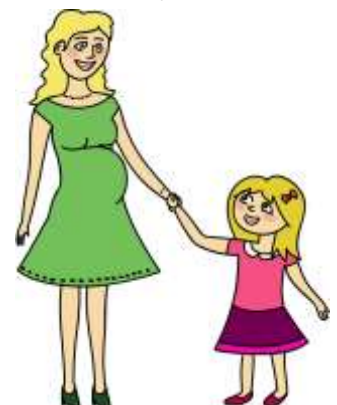

Lord, help me stay on the path you have shown me!

FACT OF LIFE

Pregnant and parenting moms in need are in our parishes and our neighborhoods. As Pope Francis reminds us, our parishes need to be "islands of mercy in the midst of a sea of indifference." Everyone in the parish community should know where to refer a pregnant woman in need.

The 25th anniversary year of Evangelium vitae gives us a wonderful opportunity to assess, expand, and communicate resources to pregnant moms and families in need. We are inviting parishes, through the support of their bishop and pastor, to join a nationwide effort from March 25, 2020 to March 25, 2021 entitled:

"Walking with Moms in Need: A Year of Service."
www.walkingwithmoms.com

Did You Know?

If you see something, say something

We see this warning in airports and schools, but experts say it's also a great way for parents to think about Internet safety for their children. One of the best ways to protect children using the Internet is to actually engage with them in what they're doing: play the games they play and check out their profile pages with them. Discuss online respect and rules for what can and cannot be shared. Regular conversation and monitoring helps keep children safe online.

For more information, read the article by Catholic News Service, "Vigilance by parents and their children called key to safe internet use."

What's Happening in the Parish Office during this Pandemic Experience?

Here are some interesting stories from some of the employees. Enjoy them.

Fred, Business Manager - Believe it or not we are busy in the Parish Office. I have been working very diligently to ensure that our Parish is staying alive and well. We in the office have done our best to keep daily masses available for the parishioners; Live Streaming Holy Week was an unforgettable experience, I have found that in the midst of the storm the Light of Christ always seems to shine through. We have been available to answer questions and concerns regarding the parish and school keeping that line of communication open. We are doing all that we can to keep our parish maintained and ready for the next step. I truly believe that my goal is to see a beautiful mass in our beautiful church when this is all over. On a more personal note, I have to say that this new normal has caused me to reflect on life as I knew it. Meaning that I feel that God has allowed me to deal with this pandemic in such a way that I have a clearer view of what I appreciate in life. Not so much going out to eat or being able to meet with friends and family. It is deeper than that. It is the idea that most of the things I appreciate are here in front of me, yet I do not show them the appreciation they deserve. This thought has allowed me to reflect and react in a positive way to those I appreciate. Lately my prayers have been rooted in gaining a closer relationship with Christ more than ever before. Like many relationships, it is the effort put into the relationship that produces the profound appreciation for those you have the relationship with. This is not only for your spiritual relationship but also, even more, with those you love that are physically with you, like family and friends.

Aleida, Parish Office Manager/Bulletin Editor - When this all began - as is probably the case with many of us - I was so stressed out. I felt a loss of structure. Gradually, though, I began to realize, that despite the harsh reality of the situation, it held the potential for opportunity. And guess what? I found myself baking! Oh my! In the past, the prospect of baking has always intimidated me. I guess, I assumed it bore no relation at all to me persona. Now, though, I really love it. I've baked bread from scratch twice since this all happened, and I'm telling you: "delicioso!" So much so, that I've branched out and tried some new recipes; for example:

Spanish Empanadas. Check them out on my Facebook page. And here is the link for the actual recipe:

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Pl8pAOf_zPc RECETAS EN CASA LM - As you can see this is a Spanish Website, but if anyone is interested, I'll be happy to assist.

Additionally, I have always loved to knit. I have a collection of different colored yarn (left over from prior projects) - but not enough of any given one, so I'm knitting an all color inclusive blanket! Of course I'm doing my best to color coordinate. Hopefully, when it's finished, it will look nice. I have a son-in-law who has always expressed interest in my blankets. No doubt, he'll be receiving this one this coming Christmas. Maybe I'll share the finished product with you all. Spiritually, I have become closer to God than ever; He is my Refuge, my Rock of Salvation!! I pray and hope that when this is all over, we will ALL be much better people! Aside from now working remotely, it's been business as usual. I continue producing the weekly bulletin; I keep our Website up-to-date (believe me, that has been interesting); I keep daily contact with my co-workers, wherein we coordinate and establish up-to-date information and the availability of our resources. Needless to say, there has been a determined effort, common to all of us here at the Parish Office, to ensure that our community is taken care of. I miss you all very much. Hope you are all doing well! Stay Home. Stay Safe. Stay Healthy. Stay Happy. Many blessings in Christ, the Risen Lord. With love, Aleida.

Theresa, Parish Office Assistant - Being in quarantine is definitely different. It's like the woman who said, "Oh, today I get to go to the mailbox, I wonder what I should wear?" Life is a little more relaxed and slower paced, which I am enjoying. An early walk (but not too early), and strapped in a mask, of course, starts my day. And after work, I take a second walk to wind down the day. I must admit there is more time for prayer and cooking. Thank goodness for my job and the Church to keep me focused and productive. I really am delighted with the Good changes, but what a price to pay! Well, at my home office, where our older folks need to be, I am very busy calling approximately, 2500 parish families. These calls are to check up on everyone's Covid 19 status, to see if we could help in some small way to make this pandemic any easier. Also, to ask if there is any special intention you would like prayers for. The other purpose is to update our current files with correct addresses, phone numbers and, of course, emails. I always emphasize to them that Mass is recorded and posted on our Website and Facebook Page seven days a week. I have enjoyed talking to so many kind and gracious people who make up our community, here at St. A's. We are so fortunate! Everyone seems to be missing the priests and the ability to worship together. One question, I often get, is, (How do I get in touch with one of the priests to just say "Hi" and what should I do with my Sunday envelopes?) Real easy, just mail a card, note or Sunday offering to: St. Anastasia Church, 7390 W. Manchester Avenue, L. A. 90045. Attn: To.....if needed. Or better yet.....save a few stamps and walk right up the steps of the Parish Office and drop your notes into our Mail Slot, to the left of the front door. No need to ring the bell. You won't have any contact with personnel and your envelope goes directly into Fr. Leszek's office. Our staff still checks incoming mail. Be safe and hope to see you real soon, I'm on to FaceTime with my grandkids! Blessings. Theresa Reilly.

Will continue...More to come!
