Twentieth Sunday in Ordinary Time ~ STANDING FAST ~ Matthew opens the scene in today's Gospel by setting up a conflict. Unlike the parallel story in Mark (7:24), the woman is described as "a Canaanite." This label serves to evoke the ancient animosity between Jews and other peoples in the region. The woman, who is never named, begs for help for her daughter. The disciples are actively dismissive of her, as a woman and a foreigner, and deem her to be unworthy of their attention. The text suggests that Jesus initially sided with the disciples. But then He recognized the strength of her faith. Many women, foreigners, or marginalized persons might identify with this woman's story. Sometimes faith means standing fast, in care for others or in fidelity to truth, even when it seems that no one supports you. Somehow, the woman recognized God's power and God's care within Jesus. And Jesus recognized that God was active within her, manifested in her commitment to her daughter. Jesus saw His Father's larger horizon of care for everyone, Jew and Gentile, within this faith-filled woman.

Welcome to our new DRE/Confirmation Coordinator ~ Nivita Brito!

My name is Nivia Aldrete-Brito (Nivita) and it is a pleasure to join St. Anastasia Parish. My family came to America from Cuba in 1968. I attended St. Joseph Elementary and Bishop Montgomery High School. I have been married to a great man, Alex Aldrete for almost 24 years. My most enjoyable moments are spent serving God, spending time with my parents, dancing, cooking, and traveling.

After my high school years, I continued to volunteer at St. Joseph where I became a Master Catechist and Eucharistic Minister in 1996. During all my years at St. Joseph, I was involved in the RCIA, First Holy Communion, and Confirmation programs. Also, coordinated the Quinceañera program along with mother/daughter retreats; became a Virtus Facilitator in 2004 and Marriage Annulment Processing Minister in 2008. I also have received a Masters of Education, and a Bachelor's Degree in Computer Information System, with a Minor in Business Management.

I have been actively involved both, as an employee, and a volunteer for the Los Angeles Archdiocese for over 30 years. Aside from my catechetical training and on-going formation, I recently completed my 7th year as principal at Our Lady of Loretto Elementary. One of my most memorable experience as principal, was to maintain a strong Christ-Centered environment, and to have been able to participate in the Religion Standards Cohort to further enhance teaching of the new standards-based religion curriculum for the Los Angeles Archdiocese.

I know that through kindness with one another, and with Jesus' example of humility in serving others, it is my goal to serve everyone and all, who are involved in the success and longevity of this parish and school. My true calling is evangelization and for this reason, I look forward to "growing roots" here at St. Anastasia. I believe in leading with a vision to challenge and motivate, to ensure quality Catholic education and growing in faith as stewards of the teachings of Jesus Christ. I believe that to lead is also to serve, and to serve is to be humble and kind.

FACTS OF LIFE - A Texas family grew by five overnight, reuniting siblings previously separated in foster care. Thomas and Andi Bonura had three biological children of their own, but 11 years ago were told they wouldn't be able to have any more. In 2017, the couple became foster parents. They were immediately paired with the first of their eventual adopted children. The five siblings were all separated, and Bryson, who is now two years old, was the couple's first foster child, straight out of the hospital. Soon, they added two of Bryson's siblings: David and Gabrielle. Then, their older twin brothers Thomas and Carter began to visit their other siblings — but visits weren't enough. "They were sweet and would say, 'Can we come live with you?'" Bonura recalled. The Bonura family happily welcomed Thomas and Carter, but soon, the opportunity arrived to make it official. "One day we got a call saying, '[The parents] are terminating rights. Do you want them?'" Bonura explained. "We said yes." In May, by way of a Zoom call due to the COVID-19 pandemic, the Bonuras adopted all five children. Neighbors celebrated with a car parade. "These are their brothers and sisters and there's no argument. The kids have been through a lot but they're the sweetest. They're amazing — and resilient," Bonura explained. "They're fun to be around and they're the greatest kids. God's hand was in it. Our family is complete." www.liveaction.org

Second Reading — How deep are the riches and the wisdom and the knowledge of God! (Romans 11:33-36).

Gospel — Jesus asked the disciples, "Who do you say that I am?" Peter replied, "You are the Christ" (Matthew 16:13-20).

Did You Know?

Back to school preparations during a pandemic. In August, families are usually preparing to start a new school year, with all the excitement and anxiety that brings. But this year, in the midst of the coronavirus pandemic, no one knows what lies ahead for school children. Talk to your children about how they're feeling and what they're worried about. Many people, including young children, are struggling with anxiety and depression during this pandemic, so be sure to check in frequently, and provide a safe space where children can talk about their concerns. Saint Anastasia was born in 281 A.D. and became a perfect symbol of peace, humanity, and solidarity. Her Feast Day is December 25th. She is a symbol of dialogue and collaboration. In her spirit, and in the spirit of love, we welcome all to the Catholic Community of St. Anastasia Catholic Church.

Saint Louis of Toulouse, Feast Day, August 19 ~

This saint was a Franciscan Bishop, the second son of Charles II of Anjou, who was King of Naples, nephew to King St. Louis IX of France and great nephew to St. Elizabeth of Hungary. St. Louis of Toulouse, was born in Provence, France, on February 9, 1274. From his childhood, he made it quite evident, that he wanted to avoid anything that was not directed to the service of God, showing no interest in child -games or distractions. His walks usually led him to a church or monastery, where he delighted in hearing the priests and monks, and their practices of piety. His modesty and Church devotion was an inspiration to everyone. When he was only seven years old, his mother often found him lying in the night, on a mat he had spread on the floor, near his bed that he felt was too soft and comfortable.

In 1284, father of Louis, King Charles II of Naples, was taken prisoner in a sea battle by the King of Aragon. He was released, with the condition, that he send to Aragon as hostages, 50 gentlemen and 3 of his sons. One of these hostages was St. Louis. Confined as a prisoner for seven years, he was subjected to ill treatment, but Louis remained patient. During their captivity, Louis and his two brothers, were educated by Franciscan friars in the Castle of Scuirana. He out did his brothers, in holiness and learning.

Louis was finally set free, by a treaty between his father, King of Naples, and James II, King of Aragon. Both sides decided that Louis, 18 years old, should marry the princess of Majorca, King James' sister. But, the saint's resolution to dedicate his life to God, was not negotiable. He resigned his right to the crown of Naples, begging his father to hand it down to his younger brother, Robert.

He had made a vow during a grave illness, to join the Friars if cured. This was the cause of his recovery. Because his parents were opposed of his joining the Friar Minors, the superiors refused to accept him. Thus, he went to Naples to prepare for Holy Orders, after finally obtaining his father's permission.

He was given a dispensation to receive the Sacrament at age 23, by Pope Boniface VIII. He was made Archbishop of Toulouse, and traveled as a poor religious, but was always greeted as a saintly priest and treated like a Prince.

His modesty, mildness, and devotion, inspired a love of piety, in all who met him. His main concern was to visit hospitals and the poor. He preached frequently. On a return visit to his sister, Queen of Aragon, he was taken by a fever. Realizing that the end was near, he received communion on his knees, with tears in his eyes. In his last moments, he never stopped reciting the Hail Mary. He died August 19, 1297 at the young age of 23.

He is the Patron Saint of: Priests and the Patron of Valencia; Mission San Louis Obispo de Toulouse. His relics reposed originally at the Franciscan Church at Marseille, but relocated in 1423, when they were taken by Alfonso V of Aragon to the Cathedral Church of Valencia. Louis is also the Patron of the town of Valencia. (Valance, France)

*"...God loves a cheerful giver."
- 2 Corinthians 9:7*

When Bobby finishes a book, he puts it on a shelf in his room, adding to his collection. When Donny finishes a book, he shares it with friends. Once, he saved a bunch of books to donate to a shelter for homeless families. Donny says it makes him happy to see other kids enjoy his books and comics. Last week, Bobby gave it a try. He shared a comic book with Donny. They talked and laughed about it for hours. Bobby decided that sharing is a lot more fun than keeping. Jesus, help me be a cheerful giver.

♥ The Power of The Rosary

When you pray the Holy Rosary, you have Our Lady's hand in your hands. When you pray the Holy Rosary, you have the power of God in your hands.

"Consueverunt Romani Pontifices" is a papal bull by Pope Pius V issued on September 17th, 1569 on the power of the Holy rosary, even before the great Catholic victory at the Battle of Lepanto in 1571. The darkness of heresy began to be dispelled, and the light of the Catholic Faith to be revealed.

Our Lady's 15 Promises for Praying the Rosary

The Roman Catholic traditions states that through St. Dominic and Blessed Alan de Rupe, the Blessed Virgin Mary made 15 specific Promises to Christians who pray the Rosary. The 15 Promises range from protection from misfortune to meriting a high degree of glory in heaven.

The St. A's
BOOK CLUB

Coming Soon!!

We would like to invite our parishioners to view a new section in our weekly bulletin!

Each month we will feature a new book (always under the guidance of Fr. Leszek).

It will be a simple share/exchange of ideas, Q&A, etc. The book chosen will be focused on how to use the Bible and God's WORD in times of crisis. We are also open to suggestions, email me at arodriguez@st-anastasia.org.

New Ideas!!

Now that we are spending more time at home, it might be nice to share some of the things we have been doing lately. This time it will be in our KITCHEN!!! I believe this could be a very creative and innovative way to help us all maintain a positive attitude through so much difficulty, and new challenges that are presented to us every day.

How about that special dish that has comforted us the most, that you prepare and serve to your families, like your famous chicken soup, that "cures all diseases" ?

If you wish, it would be nice to share those recipes and exchange ideas. Here is the link! arodriguez@st-anastasia.org

Our Reverence for the Most Holy Eucharist "O Come, Let Us Adore Him"

Fr. Charles M. Mangan - (3rd Part)

IV. Enjoy the silence to which the Holy Eucharist beckons us. Grandiose or plain—a majestic, ornate basilica or a sparsely appointed prison chapel, any space that houses the Blessed Sacrament is special and unique from other locations. There we act differently than in another place. We maintain a respectful decorum before the Holy Eucharist. Before, during and after Mass, we avoid useless talking in the presence of the Tabernacle so as to worship and focus our attention on the Risen Lord Jesus. Christ is summoning each of us to reflect quietly before His Body and Blood. "Who is He?" "Who does God want me to become?" Unnecessary chattering in the hallowed presence of the Holy Eucharist spoils the golden opportunity to learn much at the Master's Feet. There is a time for opening our mouths: responding to the prayers, singing, greeting our neighbors before and after Mass outside of the Church and in the Church's vestibule. But when in the church proper we love and adore the Eucharistic Jesus by opening our hearts and ears and closing our mouths so to listen to His "pearls of wisdom." Silence helps us to bask in the Blessed Sacrament's indescribable glory.

V. Receive Holy Communion with joy and fervor. The worthy reception of the Body and Blood of the Lord—a "foretaste" and "pledge" of Heaven, an impetus for authentic charity towards the poor, weak, defenseless and needy and a nudge towards angel-like chastity—should be the highlight of our day, week, month, year . . . life. Having prepared as indicated, we joyfully and fervently advance in awe towards the Altar. We receive Jesus either on our tongue or in the hand. (A profound bow before receiving is most appropriate.) When receiving on the tongue, one says "Amen" and permits Christ to be placed on it. If receiving in the hand, one makes a "throne" for the Lord by placing his stronger hand on the bottom and his weaker hand on top. Saying "Amen" and receiving the Host (instead of reaching for It), the communicant takes one step to the side, stops, and places the Host in his mouth by using the stronger hand from the bottom. The Host is never received "on the run." If receiving the Precious Blood from the Chalice (an option in some parishes but not an obligation, since one receives the "total" Jesus—Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity—even under one Species alone), then the communicant carefully accepts the Chalice after responding "Amen" and consumes the Precious Blood. Our diligent reception of Holy Communion signals our love and adoration for Christ. May we always receive the Son of God with dignity and devotion! - TO BE CONTINUED...

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

St Anastasia Parish and five other Westside churches have been long-time supporters of St Robert's Center in Venice. Every six weeks, we provide volunteers to make and help distribute bag lunches for the homeless. In these times of the Covid-19 virus, we have modified our program to simply provide a "grab and go" bag lunch in the St Robert's Center parking lot. We practice proper hygiene with masks and social distancing. We are desperately in need of additional volunteers to help with this ministry. If you can assist or would like more information, please call our ministry coordinators, Lori and Bob Caldwell, at 310-823-7417.

Companions on the Journey

Join us via Zoom on the third Thursday of each month, from 10 am to 11:30 am, to share your joys and your sorrows, with other fellow parishioners, especially during these challenging times. A link to the meeting will be posted on our Website and Facebook Page for those wishing to participate.

Sue McLaughlin and Lidia Vinci, parishioners, are the ones leading this very spiritual and compassionate group. If you wish to be added to the list, please email Aleida Rodriguez at arodriguez@st-anastasia.org.
