SOLEMNITY OF ALL SAINTS ~ OUR HOPE AND GOD'S PROMISE ~

~ The Church uses these waning November days and darker skies as the season to remind us of the last things. Today's feast, the Solemnity of All Saints, is the centerpiece of three days that point to doctrines we proclaim each time we say the Apostles' Creed: "We believe in the holy Catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body and life everlasting." And while the days and our hearts may be dark, the readings today are bright with the light of faith. John's vision in the Book of Revelation, reveals dazzling angels and white-robed saints gathered in triumph around the throne of God. In the responsorial psalm we sing our longing to see God's face, and in the second reading John writes that we are God's children and will, in fact, see God "as he is" (1 John 3:2). This is our hope. This is God's promise. Today we celebrate the triumph of those who already gaze on the face of God. Tomorrow we cry out for mercy with those in purgatory, who, like us on earth, still long to see God's face. ~ Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

The Novena for All Souls Day begins, Monday, November 2nd.

This year we are not going to be able to have our traditional envelopes placed in the Church to request the names of our loved ones, who have been called 'home,' to be part of our Novena. But, you may submit those names, via mail or email. Donations may be mailed or dropped through our mail slot at the Parish Office. Please do so, before November 2nd, though names can be added throughout the month of November. The affects of the pandemic has curtailed many things, but, it doesn't mean we can not adapt, especially our traditions, to the new times. Send the names to: arodriguez@st-anstasia.org. May God bless you all abundantly!

An Invitation to Celebrate All Souls Day ~ Nov. 2nd.

Due to COVID-19, we will not be able to have our traditional "Remembrance Table" this year. Instead, we would like to invite you to send us a picture of your loved one via email, and we will create a "Collage" that will be displayed on our window board by the side entrance of the Church. Also, with your authorization, we would create a page on our website, to place the picture of your loved one for remembrance, which could be visited on our portal. For those of you that don't have access to a computer (Internet), you can place the picture in an envelope, labelled with your name and phone number, and we will copy that picture, to make it part of the collage (you will be able to pick up that picture at a later time). If you have questions, concerns, or in need of more information, contact arodriguez@st-anastasia.org, as soon as possible. This will stay for the entire month of November.

FACTS OF LIFE

Serving life: How pro-life pregnancy centers are making a difference

The Charlotte Lozier Institute, the research arm of pro-life group Susan B. Anthony List, reported that more than 2,700 pro-life pregnancy centers around the U.S. served nearly two million people in 2019, providing nearly $270 million in services. These centers included both brick-and-mortar establishments, but also mobile medical centers, serving both expectant mothers and post-abortive women, with the vast majority of facilities offering parental education, material assistance for mothers, and ultrasound tests.

"Pregnancy centers exist to serve and support mothers in the courageous decision to give their children life, even under the most difficult circumstances," Chuck Donovan, president of the Charlotte Lozier Institute, stated on Wednesday. "This report calculates the impact of their mission of love in concrete terms."

Did You Know?

Teens and alcohol: COVID temptations

Families have been cooped up for months now during the COVID-19 pandemic, and studies have shown that many Americans are buying more beer and alcohol than usual to cope with related anxiety and stress. These same stresses may tempt teens and young adults to experiment with alcohol, especially if it is readily available. Talk to your children about the dangers of underage drinking, even if they plan to stay home. Model good behavior for your children, too; if you do drink alcohol, practice moderation and safe judgement. Consider locking your bar, or moving alcohol somewhere out of reach from your children. For more information, visit <https://lacatholics.org/did-you-know/>.

Saint Anastasia was born in 281 A.D. and became a perfect symbol of peace, humanity, and solidarity. Her Feast Day is December 25th. She is a symbol of dialogue and collaboration. In her spirit, and in the spirit of love, we welcome all to the Catholic Community of St. Anastasia Catholic Church.

ALL SAINTS DAY, NOVEMBER 1st ALL SOULS DAY, NOVEMBER 2nd

All Saints Day, also known as All Hallows. Hallows meaning Saints, is the day after All Hallows' Eve (Halloween). It is a Feast Day celebrated on November 1, by all Roman Catholics. Halloween has been translated from "Eve of Hallows" which, was a holy day celebrating the day before All Saints Day. Long ago in Ireland and Britain, Christians gathered together on All Hallows' Eve, to ask for God's blessing and protection from the evil in the world. Today's Halloween, consists of wearing saintly or evil costumes, to act out the battle between good and evil. The day after Halloween, All Saints Day, gives believers the opportunity to remember all Saints and Martyrs, known and unknown, throughout Christian History. As a part of this day of obligation, Catholics are required to attend Mass.

Remembering saints and martyrs, and dedicating a special day to them each year, has been a Christian tradition since the 4th century AD. It wasn't until Pope Boniface IV decided to remember All Saints. Originally, May 13 was designated as the feast of All Holy Martyrs. Later, in 837 AD, Pope Gregory IV extended the festival to remember all the Saints, and changed the date to the 1st of November. We celebrate the communion of saints, those people we believe are in heaven, through good works and God's grace.

Pope John Paul II, All Saints Day 2003 wrote:

"We celebrate today the solemnity of All Saints. This invites us to turn our gaze to the immense multitude of those who have already reached the blessed land, and points us on the path that will lead us to that destination."

All Saints Day and All Souls Day are related, but they are two separate feasts.

All Souls Day is on the 2nd of November, directly following All Saints Day, and is an opportunity for Roman Catholics to commemorate the faithful departed and asking God's mercy for them. They remember and pray for the souls of people who are in Purgatory, the place or state in which those who have died atone for their less grave sins, before being granted the vision of God in Heaven, called the Beatific Vision.

The reasoning behind this, is the belief that when the soul leaves the body, it is not entirely cleansed of venial sins. However, through the power of prayer and self-denial, the faithful left on earth may be able to help these souls gain the Beatific Vision they seek, bringing the soul eternal happiness. It is on that day, that the Book of the Dead, is opened, to allow parishioners to write the names of relatives to be remembered in this book or an individual listing of names. These names are "placed on or near the altar."

This is done all through November, as an All Souls tradition.

Other rituals include the offering of a Requiem Mass for the dead, visiting family graves, and reflecting on lost loved ones. In Mexico, on the Day of the Dead or (El Dia los Muertos), people take picnics to their family graves and leave food out for their dead relatives. While praying for the dead has been an ancient Christian tradition, it was Abbot Odilo of Cluny, France who, in 998 AD, designated November 2nd as a special day for remembering and praying for those in the process of purification. This started as a local feast in his monastery, gradually spreading throughout the Catholic Community towards the end of the 10th century AD.

Letter of Pope John Paul II for the Millennium of All Souls Day:

"For the souls in Purgatory, waiting for eternal happiness and for meeting the Beloved is a source of suffering, because of the punishment due to sin which separates them from God. But there is also the certitude that once the time of purification is over, the souls will go to meet the One it desires."

Thank you so much to all parishioners, families, and individuals who participated in the Box of Joy project!

Even though this was our first time participating on this program through the Cross Catholic Outreach

(a ministry that provides food, shelter, medical care, water, education, self-help programs, care for orphans, and emergency relief to the poorest in Dioceses around the world in the name of Christ),

thanks to your generosity we have been able to create 50 boxes in a very short period of time. These boxes are going to make some children very happy this Christmas! Somewhere, not that far from us, making it very truth the words:

The Box of Joy is a Christmas blessings that says: "God loves you, and so do I!"

We encourage all to read and reflect on the Biblical passages that will be proclaimed at Masses next week!

First Reading — Wisdom is easily discerned by those who love her (Wisdom 6:12-16).

Psalm — My soul is thirsting for you, O Lord my God (Psalm 63).

Second Reading — Since we believe that Jesus died and rose again, through Jesus, God will bring with Him those who have died (1 Thes. 4:13-18 [13-14]).

Gospel — Stay awake! You know neither the day nor the hour (Matt. 25:1-13).

"Remember that your compassion, O Lord, and your love are from of old."
- Psalm 25:6

With God's help, we are able to do a lot of good things for others. We can help our families and friends and bring them joy. But sometimes, we do things that aren't so good. When we hurt someone or ignored someone who needed us, we need to ask for forgiveness. God knows that we make mistakes. That's why God's loving forgiveness is always with us, even when we are slow to ask for it. We are always safe with God, who patiently waits for our love.

Lord, thank you for loving me even when my love is weak.
