SECOND SUNDAY OF ADVENT ~ ~ In 2020, we heard plenty of voices speaking out and sharing their opinions, but many of those words were not comforting or hope-filled. Sometimes, it was hard to know which expert or “instant expert” to listen to, and it is still difficult to hope as we struggle to regain our balance as a nation and as a Church. The Word of God offers us peace this day. All our readings remind us of a faithful God who always keeps the promises made. Isaiah prophesied about the end of Jerusalem’s time away from God, and the Psalm speaks of “seeing God’s kindness and hearing what God proclaims.” Second Peter explains that God’s timing may not be the same as ours, but good things await those who are alert. In the Gospel, John the Baptist reiterates and completes the prophecy of Isaiah by laying the groundwork and preparing the way for those who await the coming of the Messiah.

The Blessing of the Advent Wreath at Home

The use of the Advent Wreath is a traditional practice which has found its place in the Church as well as in the home. The blessing of an Advent Wreath takes place on the First Sunday of Advent or on the evening before the First Sunday of Advent, but it is not too late if you decide to start this beautiful and meaningful tradition today!

When the blessing of the Advent Wreath is celebrated in the home, it is appropriate that it be blessed by a parent or another member of the family.

Each candle represents a virtue: Hope, Peace, Joy and Love.

The colors are also representatives of each virtue. The pink candle, which is lit on the Third Sunday of Advent, also called “Gaudete Sunday” gets its color because pink is the liturgical color for joy, and is meant to remind us of the joy that the world experienced at the birth of Jesus. As well as the joy that the faithful have reached the midpoint of Advent.

Visit the USCCB Website, and check this link, to find the beautiful Prayer for the blessing of the wreath.

Retirement Fund for Religious

Next Sunday, December 13th.

Please give to those who have given a lifetime!

Help our elders. In good times and bad, senior Catholic sisters, brothers, and religious order priests, have dedicated themselves to service and acts of mercy. Today, they pray for an aching world. Yet, years of service for little or no pay, have left their religious communities without enough retirement savings. Your gift to the Retirement Fund for Religious helps provide medications, nursing, care, and other necessities. This collection will be taken after Holy Communion.

FACTS OF LIFE
Advent Prayer for Life

Priests for Life invites all believers to celebrate this Advent as an “Advent for Life.”

Prayer for Advent

God of Life,
We rejoice in the promise of your coming.
You have sent your Son, born in Bethlehem.
He is the Prince of Peace, and
The one in whose name all oppression shall cease.
May we welcome his coming each day
And prepare for his coming at the end of time.
May we build a culture that welcomes him
By welcoming every child, born and unborn.
We pray through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.

Did You Know?

Deck the Halls safely

As we continue under Covid-19 restrictions, many families will be celebrating Christmas entirely in their own homes this year, in place of parties and traditional holiday outings. Keep basic safety guidelines in mind as you decorate. Use surge protectors and outlet strips for extra lights around the house and tree, and make sure to cover unused sockets to keep little hands and fingers out. Inspect your lights and any battery-operated decorations to make sure they are working properly; frayed light strands and old batteries could be fire hazards. For more tips on decorating safely, read the VIRTUS article “Creating a Safe Christmas

Celebration” at <https://lacatholics.org/did-you-know/>.

Saint Anastasia was born in 281 A.D. and became a perfect symbol of peace, humanity, and solidarity. Her Feast Day is December 25th. She is a symbol of dialogue and collaboration. In her spirit, and in the spirit of love, we welcome all to the Catholic Community of St. Anastasia Catholic Church.

Prepare yourself and your family for Advent. Follow the Advent daily family activities.

As our Pastor, Fr. Leszek reminded us during his homily, "It's a time of preparation for the birth of Christ!"

Yes...this means to "spiritually" nourish your soul with prayer and daily meditation.

The Celebration of Our Lady of Guadalupe Mass will take place this Friday, December 11th, at 6 pm in Pastors Plaza.

Following the guidelines, keeping the 6 feet distance, and protecting ourselves and others, wearing masks.

"Blessed are the eyes that see what you see." - Luke 10:23

The disciples were blessed. They got to witness

Jesus' words and deeds. They saw His love in action. Day after day, they walked with Him and learned from Him. We are also blessed. Thanks to the Holy spirit, we witness Jesus's words and deeds in Scriptures. We learn about Him through the Church. But more than anything, we experience the living Jesus in His real Body and Blood in the Eucharist. That means that day after day, we can follow in His footsteps by truly putting His love in action.

Jesus, thank you for blessing me with faith.

Wake up to St. Nicholas Day!

The lowly shall again find joy in the Lord. - Isaiah 29:19

This is the day we usually celebrate Saint Nicholas. We don't know much about who he was, but he lived in the part of the world now called Turkey more than 1500 years ago. He was a bishop and legends tell us that he cared for the poor. In Greek, his name means "victory for the people!" When we care for the poor, that's a victory for all God's people.

THINK ABOUT IT... In our own time, Saint Nicholas (N) gets mixed up with Santa Claus (C). Would you be able to tell the difference with the word match below:

Usually shown wearing a miter, a bishop's hat
Usually shown wearing a floppy red hat
Ride a horse or walks on his own feet
Gets around with reindeer

Lived in Turkey
Lives at the North Pole
A fun story for Christmas time
A real saint that cared for God's People
