SOLEMNITY OF THE EPIPHANY OF THE LORD ~ ~ PROMISE FULFILLED

Isaiah reminds the people of God that the land shall be restored to their possession, they shall rejoice to see their people return from the bondage of exile, and they shall be a light to the nations. In other words, through the people of Israel, the Savior shall come to all people who seek God with a sincere heart. This brings joy and the radiance of God's glory to all the world and to all people everywhere. Through the fidelity of the people of God, and through God's fidelity to them, all people shall become God's children and rejoice in the fulfillment of God's promise to Israel.

FROM YOUR DRE...

Dear Parishioners, Panther Parents, Faculty, Staff and our Clergy,

I trust you are doing well, and experiencing the wonderful blessings of God in your life. I wanted to take a moment to send this note of apology to let you know that I am deeply sorry for using some inappropriate words to a person who disturbed our parish last Sunday. As most of you know there was an individual filming our families and their vehicle license plates, dressed as what I thought might be a "terrorist". In trying my best, I chose to handle the situation as it was developing and regretfully used improper language. My intention was to protect all around me and not allow this individual to hurt anyone. Therefore, I ask that you understand that I was very scared and did not choose the most appropriate way to handle this situation. I humbly apologize to the community and I am so sorry that my response to that individual was not exemplary of Christian forbearance. I do hope this event will not reflect negatively on our relationship in the future.

Blessings in Christ!

Mrs. Brito

15 CATHOLIC NEW YEAR'S RESOLUTIONS!

Read the Bible. The whole thing. But don't start at Genesis and read through to Revelation. Check out this one year Bible plan (<https://www.piercedhands.com/reading-bible-year/>) and take a more manageable approach to soaking in God's word this year. And oh my goodness, I love this new Catholic Journaling Bible! (<https://blessedishe.net/product/the-catholic-journaling-bible/>) (If you happen to be engaged, I think it would make the best wedding guest book ever.)

Get to know the Saints. I'm relatively new in my love of the Saints, but (as with most things) I've become rather obsessed. Pick up a cheap copy of my favorite books about Saints (Modern Saints volume 1 and volume 2 by Ann Ball, Amazon) or click over to my page on Aleteia (<https://aleteia.org/author/meg-hunter-kilmer/>) to read 50 different Saint bios that I wrote last year. But vague resolutions are useless, so rather than resolving to "get to know the Saints," try something more like, "Each week, I'll learn about a new Saint, trying to figure out what I need to imitate in his or her life and virtues, and asking for his or her intercession." By the end of [the year], you'll have 52 more new besties in heaven! Or maybe pick one Saint per month to get to know more deeply, or two or three Saints for the year whose biographies you can get. Anything to grow closer to your family in heaven.

Sign up for a holy hour. Don't just promise yourself that you'll make a holy hour each week, actually sign up so there's more accountability than just your conscience. If you're not sure where there's adoration near you, check out this directory (http://therealpresence.org/chap_fr.htm), which I've found to be remarkably accurate. If there isn't adoration near you and you can't ask your priest to start exposing the Blessed Sacrament, a private commitment to spend an hour before the tabernacle once a week would also be great.

Saint Anastasia was born in 281 A.D. and became a perfect symbol of peace, humanity, and solidarity. Her Feast Day is December 25th. She is a symbol of dialogue and collaboration. In her spirit, and in the spirit of love, we welcome all to the Catholic Community of St. Anastasia Catholic Church.

The Epiphany of the Lord ~~ Little Drummer Boy

Did you know that the only reason we say that there were three wise men is that they brought three gifts? The Bible never says their number or their names. The gifts tell us about the givers. And these special gifts--gold, frankincense, and myrrh--tell us much. When one king visited or sent an ambassador to another, he would give a gift of gold to show that he acknowledged the kingship of the other. So the first gift of the wise men tells us they recognized Jesus as King. The second gift is a type of incense, which was used in Jesus' time to worship God. So this gift shows the wise men paying homage to Jesus' divinity. The gift of myrrh is oil used to anoint the dying. It reminds us of Jesus suffering and death on the cross. So what gifts do we have for Jesus? Maybe we can take a hint from the wise men. If we acknowledge Jesus as king, maybe a better gift than gold would be to pledge our obedience to him. Each day we can promise to live our vocation as best we can, to love those around us, and forgive those who hurt us. A better way than burning incense to pay homage to Jesus' divinity is to take time to pray throughout the day. Some people are able to attend daily Mass, others spend time in adoration before the Eucharist, or even a few minutes of their lunch break to say the rosary. As for the gift of myrrh, we can give Jesus the crosses we bear each day. When we accept suffering in our lives, especially that caused by our sins, we give ourselves to Jesus as he gave himself for us on the cross. The song "Little Drummer Boy" reminds us that the best gift is not necessarily the most expensive. Instead, it is the simple gift that only we can give. Let Epiphany remind us to offer our lives to Jesus each day.

FACTS OF LIFE

Baby Jesus community cares for 'miracle' babies who survived abortions

While there was no place in the Inn for the baby Jesus, a Catholic Brazilian man believes God has called him to make a place in his home, a place he calls the Community of Baby Jesus, for the 42 disabled children he has adopted, many of whom survived failed abortions.

Comunidade Jesus Menino (Community of Baby Jesus) is nestled about an hour and a half north of Rio de Janeiro. There, Tônio Tavares cares for his adopted children, who have a range of disabilities such as autism and cerebral palsy. The community was featured in the HUMAN Life movie.

"This is the message of the Catholic Community of the Child Jesus: it is to embrace life, to acknowledge life, to respect life throughout its development: from conception until natural death," Tavares told LifeSiteNews in an exclusive interview. "Life, at the present time, must continue to be defended: always, always." www.lifesitenews.com.

Did You Know?

How the ADLA can help victim-survivors heal
When the Vatican released the McCarrick Report late last year, many victim-survivors of sexual abuse may have been triggered by the revelations in the report and the repeated mention of it in the news and on social media. In the Archdiocese of Los Angeles, the Office of Victims Assistance Ministry was created to provide a safe and compassionate environment for victim-survivors who need to report abuse, to be able to do so, and to receive assistance for healing. FEAST OF FAITH ~ ~ The Liturgy of Emmanuel

The assembly has gathered from near and far, on foot, by bus, by car, by subway, singly and by twos and threes: single people, couples, families. Now that movement is ritualized and made visible in the liturgy's entrance procession. We are not alone on this journey; Christ is with us. The procession is led by the cross, with the image of Christ upon it. Candles, signs of a living presence, are carried around the cross. Candles also accompany the Book of the Gospels, another sign of Emmanuel, God-with-us. The priest presider is likewise a sign of Christ's presence in our assembly; he will act in persona Christi, in the person of Christ, who presides at every Eucharist.

As the procession begins, we stand and sing together in our first act as a community. The joining of our voices begins to turn many into one. The songs we sing range from ancient chants to contemporary hymns, but they have the same purpose, to foster our unity and turn our thoughts to the mysteries we gather to celebrate. We may feel that we can't sing well, but "Christ always invites us to enter into song, to rise above our own preoccupations, and to give our entire selves to the hymn of his Paschal Sacrifice"

(USCCB, Sing to the Lord, 14).

What Are the Readings Telling Me?

The four Scripture readings proclaimed at Sunday Mass carry a special message for us. But sometimes we miss it.

Join Dr. Brant Pitre each week as he reveals hidden meanings, navigates difficult passages, and gives historical context for the Sunday 'Liturgy of the Word'.

Watch his engaging videos on your own schedule and participate in moderated Q&A and discussion with other members of St. Anastasia Bible Study.

Every Sunday like never before you will be prepared to understand and appreciate the richness of Sacred Scripture.

There is no charge but registration is needed.

"And Mary kept all these things, reflecting on them in her heart."

Luke 2:19

Mary, the Mother of God

Would you like to be happier this year? Try to do some reflecting every day, like Mary did. Reflecting is thinking quietly and prayerfully. It doesn't have to take a lot of time, and you can ask Jesus or Mary for help. You can reflect on the things that happen in your day. Reflect on your blessings or even on the words of the prayers you say. When you reflect on things with Jesus (or Mary, or even one of the Saints), you might be inspired to see things in a different ways. You might even get ideas for how to tackle problems. Best of all, you can see how much you are loved.

Jesus, be with me as I reflect on my day today, and everyday!
