THIRD SUNDAY OF EASTER ~ ~ FULFILLMENT ~ ~ It is interesting that during the Easter season, when we do not hear a reading from the Old Testament, it becomes so important. This is particularly true today. Peter's speech begins with a prayer formula familiar to Jews: "The God of Abraham . . ." (Acts 3:13). It likewise contains the potent phrases "Holy and Righteous One" and "mouth of all the prophets" (3:14, 18). Peter was stating in no uncertain terms that the law, psalms, and prophets had been fulfilled in Christ. This is reinforced by Jesus Himself in the Gospel passage, when he states that everything in the scriptures (to the early Christians "the scriptures" were what we call the Old Testament) had to be fulfilled. Above all, Jesus and Peter both emphasize that we are witnesses to all of this, and are sent forth to bear witness to it in the world. The Latin Missa, from which our word "Mass" comes, means "sent" (as in "mission"). As we leave Mass today, let us remember to be witnesses to all that has been fulfilled in the risen Christ.

Third Sunday of Easter - Peter saw Jesus after the Resurrection. He listened as Jesus told the disciples all that had been written about him in the scriptures, all that he had said and done when he was ministering among them. Peter heard how Jesus had fulfilled all in the law of Moses, the prophets, and the psalms. Jesus, the Messiah, had come to be among them to bring them peace, to offer forgiveness of their sins. Peter shared this Good News with the crowds who gathered to hear him tell the sacred story, the story of God's love, poured out in Jesus the Christ and offered to the whole world. All who hear and believe are offered new life, life in which God's love is perfected in them. Are you listening? Are you ready to share in this abundant new life?

NOT WHAT WAS EXPECTED - Have you ever waited for something for so long you began to think it might never happen? Your graduation day, or the day of your marriage, or the birth of a child, perhaps. The Israelites had waited for centuries for the coming of the Messiah. Yet when Jesus, the long-awaited Anointed One came, many failed to believe in him. He wasn't what they expected. The Messiah was supposed to be a strong, powerful commander of armies, not humble, compassionate, and suffering. After his resurrection, Jesus appeared to the disciples and explained all that he had said in his time with them, opening their minds to what had been written in the scriptures so that they could accept his suffering and death and rejoice in his resurrection.

FACTS OF LIFE

Two brothers from Poplar Grove, Illinois, have launched their own business — but there's something that sets them apart. The adopted brothers both have Down Syndrome, and together, they run Two Fresh Brothers, which sells individually created and packaged air fresheners, or "freshies." They're receiving so many orders and so much support that they have at times sold out. Within an hour of launch, they sold out of their inventory. Since then, they've continued to see tons of support, and are returning the favor with a special fundraiser for World Down Syndrome Day, with four specially-themed freshies in celebration. "This year we wanted to use this platform and the boys' new business to raise money for an amazing organization, DSDN or the Down Syndrome Diagnosis Network. This organization comes alongside new parents just receiving a Down syndrome diagnosis, they help educate medical professionals on how to deliver a diagnosis to a new family, they grieve with parents who have lost a loved one with Down syndrome, and host retreats for moms and dads allowing them to get away to have some fun with other people who understand the journey. Their work is vital and necessary." Some continue to believe that people with Down syndrome aren't capable of many things, but more and more people, like Elijah and Malachi, are proving them wrong. # MINISTRY EQUIPS US TO DEEPEN OUR LOVE FOR GOD AND SHARE OUR FAITH...

“After Easter... Spring Cleaning”

From the Editor's Pen!

Lent and Holy Week prepared us for a mission to clean up our souls, but let's not forget the lessons we've learned, now that the Easter Season is soon coming to an end. We entered a stage of reparation for the routine things we have been doing throughout the years, for the most significant time and day for Christians around the world: The Resurrection of Our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ! But what happens next? Do we go back to our daily chores, to our routines, or have we truly experienced a metamorphosis? Are we renewed and filled with the conviction and firm purpose of being better and of continuing to be? I hope so! Only with the help of continuous prayer, the reading of the Word of God, the support of our brethren of faith, can we achieve it. I think it's very similar to when we begin a new diet or change our exercise and life routine, we need support from others. It is very hard to do all this alone! The first Christian communities shared everything, so they could face the harsh repercussions and consequences that resulted from becoming followers of Jesus, the Nazarene.

If we think about the sacrifices we have made during Lent, and the way they made us feel, would we value them enough to continue towards further change?

Let's take advantage of this renewed stage, that comes after the Easter Celebration, and continue to work on the lessons we have learned. Letting these lessons expand into our daily habits, the way we eat, how we take care of ourselves, our homes, and workplaces. How do we treat and think of others? How are we ready to extend a hand to someone in need, to be an active listener for those who need to share their struggles? The way we prepare for Lent, really needs to reflect a metamorphosis, beyond those 40 days! This 'change' should be evident both inward and outward, just like the transformation of a caterpillar to a butterfly!

Are we ready to get rid of things we no longer use? Maybe a look around our closets, kitchen cabinets, garage...will also make us aware that it is very important not only to keep our souls, and minds free of burdens, but our surroundings. It also brings a better way of getting rid of those "extras" we have been accumulating — we can donate them, and let others less fortunate, benefit from them — this will really make us feel like we have done a good deed!!! It is a beautiful result of our Easter experience that we can carry with us throughout the year and make others happy at the same time!

The spring air leaves us with a very clear message, that it is time to open our windows to let the sun and fresh air renew our indoor and outdoor environment. That the Spirit of the Resurrection of Jesus, renews our inside and outside selves.

With God everything is possible!

** And looking at them Jesus said to them,

“With man this is impossible, but with God all things are possible.” - Matthew 19:26

“For the one whom God sent speaks the words of God. He does not ration His gifts of the Spirit.”

- John 3:34

During the past year, you probably saw some empty shelves at the grocery store. Shortages of things like flour and toilet paper reminded many people of other shortages in history. During World War II, one solution to shortages was called rationing. Families could buy only a certain amount each week. Rationing meant that no one got a lot while others only got a little. Everyone got enough—sometimes just barely—to get by. When God gives us His Holy spirit, He doesn't give us just enough to get by. He gives us an overflowing abundance. It doesn't cost any money, and there is never any shortage of God's gifts. All you need is FAITH. Believe it!

God, thank you for your abundant gifts!
