Twelfth Sunday
in Ordinary Time

Jesus rebuked the wind, and said to the sea,

“QUIET! BE STILL!”

The wind ceased and there was great calm.

TWELFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME ~ ~ THE WIND AND THE SEA ~ ~ Living along the shores of Lake Superior—the “big lake,” as the locals call it—you can often hear the advice, “Respect the lake; don’t take it for granted.” People who know Lake Superior respect its power and watch out for its many moods. Sunken ships and boats crushed into kindling are testimonies to what the lake can do. The readings of this Sunday evoke our memories of the lake, of the mighty Mississippi River, or of the ocean itself. Who but God can control these mighty waters and set limits to their advance? The lake described in today’s Gospel was a body of water subject to sudden storms and churned into dangerous waves by terrible winds. But these mighty agents are subject to God. The sailor and the fisher all respect the water. Even more, they respect the awesome power of the Maker of wind and sea.

Sacred Heart Prayer
Oh Most Holy Heart of Jesus

O most holy Heart of Jesus, fountain of every blessing, I adore You, I love You, and with a lively sorrow for my sins, I offer You this poor heart of mine. Make me humble, patient, pure, and wholly obedient to Your will. Grant, good Jesus, that I may live in You and for You. Protect me in the midst of danger; comfort me in my afflictions. Give me health of body, assistance in my temporal needs, Your blessing on all that I do, and the grace of a holy death. Amen.

Warm Greetings in Christ,

On this Father's Day, we wanted to take a few moments to offer some words of encouragement and appreciation to all the Fathers.

For the young son, Dad stands for all he wants to be in life "when he grows up". He watches with eyes and ears that record how Dad lives, whether it be in the home, on the job, or in their time of recreation as a family. This recording takes place on a daily basis in his life, as one day he will push "play", and become a Dad himself.

For the young daughter, Dad is her knight in shining armor with the responsibility to protect her yet tender enough to shower her with his unconditional love when she needs to know he's there. For her, Dad remains "Daddy" through the turbulent years of teenage trials, then with a falling tear and trembling lips she kisses "Daddy" on the cheek at her wedding in hopes she is marrying someone who will love and protect her "just like Daddy did".

The Godly Father recognizes his own shortcomings and failures from time to time as he shepherds his family and will be humble enough to draw upon the strength of his Heavenly Father for help and guidance. The Godly Father is not ashamed to admit to times of weakness and insufficiency, and yes, even shed a tear or two at times as he faces the challenges of life and leadership of his family. He looks forward to looking up to God and confessing his need to the one who is all-sufficient and all-knowing.

We applaud you all Dads, as you sacrifice for your family in so many ways, yet also encourage you to give your most valuable asset to your Children as much as possible which is of course, your time. There is a statement that says, "time is of the essence", and this is indeed the case when Dads and Kids interact.

Thank you for working, planning, caring, disciplining, teaching, and yes, learning about being the best Dad you can possibly be. Most of all, thanks for being "Dad" and trusting your Heavenly Father to guide you in the journey.

Fr. Leszek Semik,
Pastor

Did You Know?

Using the “What If” game to raise problem-solving children

The “What If” game is a great way to walk your children through potential scenarios, and work with them to find the best solutions. Ask your children about “what if” scenarios, mixing silly questions with real world ones to keep them engaged and thinking, like “What if you had super powers?” and “What if a stranger asked you to go somewhere with him at the mall?” You can empower your children with problem-solving skills that will keep them safe even when you can’t be there to protect them. For more information, visit <https://www.d2l.org/what-if-game/>.

We encourage all to read and reflect on the Biblical passages that will be proclaimed at Masses next week!

First Reading — God did not make death, nor does God rejoice in the destruction of the living (Wis 1:13-15; 2:23-24).
Psalm — I will praise you, Lord, for you have rescued me (Psalm 30).
Second Reading — Your abundance should supply the needs of the others (2 Corinthians 8:7, 9, 13-15).
Gospel — Your faith has saved you (Mark 5:21-43 [21-24, 35b-43]).

FACTS OF LIFE

Andrea Bocelli shares song in honors of mother who refused doctors’ advice to abort him

In 2010 Bocelli released several inspirational videos in which he described his mother’s brave defiance of doctors’ advice to abort him, and praised her for making “the right choice,” and saying other mothers should take encouragement from the story. In a video, the singer tells the audience a story about a young pregnant wife hospitalized for what medics assume is appendicitis.

“The doctors had to apply some ice on her stomach and when the treatments ended the doctors suggested that she abort the child. They told her it was the best solution because the baby would be born with some disability”.

He went on, “But the young brave wife decided not to abort, and the child was born. That woman was my mother, and I was the child. Maybe I’m partisan, but I can say that it was the right choice”.

He said he hoped the story could encourage many mothers in “difficult situations” but who want to save the life of their unborn child.

ST. ROBERT'S CENTER IN VENICE NEEDS VOLUNTEERS

The center provides emergency food for residents of Santa Monica, Venice, LAX Airport, West Los Angeles, Beverly Hills, and Culver City areas. The center has a rotating schedule of six parishes who commit to having volunteers come, and St. Anastasia has been one of these parishes. The center operates from 7:30 to 11:30 a.m. making sandwiches to distribute in lunch bags, giving out groceries and donated clothes, and just being present with those who need a human connection. St. A's parishioners were more involved with volunteering at St. Roberts Center, however due to COVID the center has seen fewer and fewer folks from our Parish. The center reserved 6/26, 8/7, 10/30 & 12/11 just for St. Anastasia volunteers and we ask you kindly to consider volunteering at the Center one of these days. Volunteers are often welcome to come on other days to fill in if the center gets contact ahead of time. For more information, please reach out to Tom Hoffarth, Food Pantry Manager at St. Roberts Center, at THoffarth@ccharities.org, or call 323.646.1096.

"Come, you who are blessed by my Father; take your inheritance, the kingdom prepared for you since the creation of the world. For I was hungry and you gave me something to eat, I was thirsty and you gave me something to drink, I was a stranger and you invited me in, I needed clothes and you clothed me, I was sick and you looked after me, I was in prison and you came to visit me." ~ Matthew 25:34-35

PART-TIME STAFF POSITIONS: The Pregnancy Help Center, a pro life pregnancy medical clinic in Torrance, has two part-time positions available: 1) Marketing & Communications Manager (minimum three years marketing experience) and 2) Client Services Manager (to work with clients and manage non-medical aspects of the Clinic). For more information, please send an email to administration@phctorrance.org stating which position you are interested in.

"But I say to you, love your enemies, and pray for those who persecute you..." - Matthew 5:44

How are you doing with anger these days? Have you had any opportunities this week to respond with love when someone did something that made you mad? It's okay if you got angry, it happens to everybody. Responding with love takes practice and, more than anything else, prayer. Lots of prayer! Ask God to help you when it comes to making loving responses instead of angry ones. Ask God to help you pray for those who persecute or hurt you. And remember, if anyone tries to hurt you in any way, talk to an adult you trust about it!

God, help me love all of your people!
