EIGHTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME ~ THE BREAD OF LIFE ~ Today's Gospel has the crowd asking Jesus three questions. First, "When did you get here," to which Jesus responds by rebuking them for their failure to grasp his miracle as a "sign," an occasion to put faith in him. Their second question about accomplishing the "works of God" has Jesus respond that faith is the "work" that God wishes. Many scholars believe this is John's answer to the faith-works dichotomy emerging in the early Christian community. Faith is the work of God in the believer, John would have us understand. The third question asked by the crowd is a request for a "sign" that would allow them to put faith in Jesus, as the manna in the desert allowed the Israelites to put faith in the Lord God. Jesus answers by revealing himself as the "bread of life" that "comes down from heaven and gives life to the world."

Heed Our Lady's Call! The Five First Saturdays Devotion -

Our Loving Mother has requested the devotion of the Five First Saturdays in reparation for the blasphemies and offenses to her Immaculate Heart.

To assist those here at St. Anastasia wishing to complete this devotion, the Parish offers the following on 1st Saturdays:

- * 8:00 - Holy Mass; * 8:30 to 9:30 am - Adoration; * 3:30 to 4:45 pm - Confession; * 5:00 pm - Holy Mass.

The Church is open throughout the day for meditation and silent Rosary.

Adoration is also a good opportunity to complete those components.

If you are interested in a family-friendly meditation and Courtyard Rosary for kids (4 pm) before the Saturday 5 pm Vigil Mass, contact Kimberly Chavira at kimberlychavira@mac.com.

For questions about this devotion contact kimberlychavira@mac.com.

For a complete description of the devotion see: https://firstsaturdaydevotion.com

Please refer to our Website for more information. Brochures are also available.

Archdiocesan Collection Mission Co-op

This weekend, July 31/August 1st, St. Anastasia welcomes Sr. Pascazia and Sr. Mona, sisters of the order of the Daughters of Mary and Joseph.

The sisters are currently serving in Uganda.

Their mission, among other things, is to help promote education, care for leprosy sufferers and many orphans.

Please, with your generosity, help these sisters in their labor of love among those less fortunate.

Faith @ Home ~ Is back and available on our Website, and it is also inserted in our weekly bulletin. Faith @ Home helps you and your household grow in faith as you spend time throughout the week reflecting on God's Word. Based on the Sunday readings from the Revised Common Lectionary, the devotions invite you to engage in the discipleship practice of Reading, Reflecting, and Responding to scripture in the context of community.

We encourage all to read and reflect on the Biblical passages that will be proclaimed at Masses next week!

First Reading — After resting and taking nourishment twice, Elijah is strengthened to walk to the mountain of God, Horeb (1 Kings 19:4-8).

Psalm — Taste and see the goodness of the Lord (Psalm 34).

Second Reading — Be sealed by the Holy Spirit of God so as to be imitators of God and live in love (Ephesians 4:30 — 5:2).

Gospel — Jesus professes that He is the living bread and whoever eats this bread will live forever (John 6:41-51).

Did You Know?

Find out what your children are watching

With movie theaters reopening across the country, now is a great time to add another website to your collection of parenting resources: Catholic News Services' staff reviews movies from a uniquely Catholic perspective, noting things like nudity, swearing, and other problematic themes that have become mainstream in ratings like PG and PG-13. Parents can vet movies their children are planning to see or may encounter at friends' houses. Talk to your children about what they should do if a friend wants to see a questionable movie, and why you want them to avoid particular films. For movie reviews, visit catholicnews.com/movie-reviews/.

FACTS OF LIFE

Elite athletes pressured to abort their children:

'I made a decision that broke me'

For many athletes, getting a shot at the Olympics is the experience they work for their entire lives. Yet for women, it can come with heavy sacrifices — including the pressure to end the lives of their own unborn children. And women are beginning to speak out more often. One athlete, Sanya Richards-Ross, wrote a book about her life and athletic career, which included the grief surrounding an abortion she sought before she competed in the 2008 Beijing Summer Olympics. "I knew I was at a crossroads," she wrote in her book "Chasing Grace: What the Quarter Mile Has Taught Me About God and Life." Professional athletes face similar discrimination once they become pregnant. Allyson Felix is the most notable example; the Olympic sprinter explained that Nike tried to force her to take a 70% pay cut when she was pregnant. When her contract expired, Nike wanted her to sign a renewal, so she requested a guarantee that she wouldn't be punished for performing at a lower level while pregnant and postpartum — which Nike refused. Thankfully, there are changes being made — slowly, but steadily, as more women speak out. Felix has partnered with her new sponsor company, Athleta, and the Women's Sports Foundation to create a child care grant for Olympic moms. These mothers will receive $10,000 to cover the cost of caring for their children while they compete. In addition to this, nursing mothers are now also being permitted to bring their infants with them to the Olympic games in Tokyo, thanks to a plea from basketball player Kim Gaucher. She spurred the change after she was originally told she couldn't bring her three-month-old daughter with her. "Being a mom is really hard, but it's also one of the best jobs that I could have," she said. "When I started this whole thing, when I said I wanted to come back for the Olympics, I wanted to be able to inspire not just future young Canadian basketball players, but my daughter Sophie, to be able to tell her that I gave it my all."

"The Kingdom of heaven is like a mustard seed that a person took and sowed in a field."
- Matthew 13:31

*If you left a watermelon seed on the kitchen counter all summer, not much would happen, right? But put the same seed in some soil, water it every day, give it lots of sunshine and care, and soon you could have a huge, beautiful plant—plus more delicious watermelons! When you were baptized, you received God's special grace within you. You could leave it alone, and not much will happen. But take special care of this grace by following all that Jesus teaches every day, and you can make the huge, beautiful life God has planned for you happen. What will you do today to take care of the grace you have received?

Generous God, keep your love growing in me!

St. Anastasia is forming a volunteer team to help support St. Robert's Center — Homeless Weekend Program.

This Catholic Charities site offers a Saturday food for residents of Santa Monica, Venice, LAX Airport, West Los Angeles, Beverly Hills, and Culver City areas providing emergency food. The center operates from 7:30 to 11:30 a.m. making sandwiches to distribute in lunch bags, giving out groceries and donated clothes, and just being present with those who need a human connection. The center has a rotating schedule of six parishes who commit to having volunteers help, and St. Anastasia has been one of these parishes.

St. A's parishioners were more involved with volunteering at St. Roberts Center, however due to COVID the center has seen fewer and fewer folks from our Parish. The center has reserved the following Saturdays— NEXT COMING UP 8/7, 10/30 & 12/11 just for St. Anastasia volunteers and we ask you to kindly consider volunteering at the Center one of these dates. Volunteers are often welcome to come on other days to fill in, if the center gets contacted ahead of time.

For more information, please contact Aleida Rodriguez at 310-670-2243, or by email at arodriguez@st-anastasia.org.

The first group of parishioners served on Saturday, June 26th, and the experience was amazing and rewarding. But, we would love to hear from you too! Check our website for information, and to see for yourself St. A's in action.
