THE HUMANITY OF JESUS CHRIST

All three readings today support—each in its own way, of course—a reflection on the humanity of Jesus Christ, and how that humanity played a key role in the drama of our salvation. Although not chosen specifically to coordinate with the other two readings, today's second reading does in fact carry forward the theme of Christ's humanity in a remarkable way. The author of the Letter to the Hebrews highlights the solidarity that exists between Jesus and us, precisely because in his human nature Jesus has known the same sufferings and testing that are our own experience. Because he can "sympathize with our weaknesses," we can "approach the throne of grace to receive mercy." For the author of Hebrews, the humanity of Jesus was an essential requirement for his redemptive death, as well as an invitation to us to find in Jesus someone with whom we can identify in our daily struggles.

FACT OF LIFE

After having 4 kids, I accidentally got pregnant at 42 while my marriage was crumbling — and I don't regret it

Too often, women are sold a lie that abortion must be legal because women require it, and that putting an end to the life of a preborn baby is the only thing that stands between them and freedom. But this is simply false, and one woman's story shows how she chose life when times were tough, and how her baby helped her through her dark times.

Susan Solomon Yem was facing a difficult road ahead of her. At the age of 42, she had four children already. Her youngest child, her only girl, had begun begging her for another sibling so she could have a sister. But heartbreakingly, Susan said that wouldn't be happening because her father had just abandoned the family and was dissolving their marriage.

But he hadn't yet made up his mind, and when he returned to the family for another chance, Susan reluctantly took him back. It was their wish that the kids would grow up with both parents. In the weeks and months that followed, Susan discovered she was pregnant. "I was stunned," she said. "It wasn't that I didn't realize such a thing could happen — it's just that in the midst of so much turmoil, the last thing we needed was a baby."

Susan had complicated feelings about the news. She was in her 40s, she had decided years earlier that her family size was complete, and she had growing doubts about her husband's commitment to the family. A new baby could upset the delicate tightrope she felt she was walking. And if it were up to her, she would never have planned a fifth child.

Susan chose life for her baby, even though she didn't feel excited about the pregnancy. "Though I was healthy, I wasn't happy," she said. "I felt huge and extremely unattractive, even though those second-trimester fingernails were fabulous. I was grateful for the full nine months. They gave me time to adjust and to get excited about this new child joining our family."

Though he wasn't the little girl her daughter had asked for, the family was delighted with a new little brother.

"While I never would have planned a fifth child, I'm so glad he's here," she said. "His father left our household permanently when the baby was 8 months old. But each of his siblings stepped in and supplied the nurture and care he needed, from strong guidance to roughhousing to coddling and cuddling. And he gave me purpose and a reason to get up every morning as I endured the darkest period of my life." www.liveaction.org

FAITH FORMATION

KIDS' CORNER

THERE IS NO PARTIALITY WITH GOD

ROMANS 2:11

God loves all people! He doesn't choose to love only those who know and love him. He doesn't stop loving someone because of something they've said, done or believed. God is love. God gives his gigantic, enormous love freely. Growing up in a Catholic family, you have lots of extra special ways you can really experience this love. When you learn about your faith and about how to pray, you find ways to talk and listen to God. When you go to Mass and receive the Sacraments, you are right there with Jesus. Jesus gives you his grace and strength to grow, live and love others as he loves you. What a great gift!

GOD. THANK YOU FOR THIS GIFT OF FAITH

From the book entitled "Living Faith Kids" by Imprimatur Bishop Mark S. Rivituso

FAITH @ HOME

HEAR

"For the Son of Man did not come to be served but to serve and to give his life as a ransom for Many."
Mark 10:45

PRAY

Personal Prayer: Follow the points below to pray:

1. Call on God (Heavenly Father, Lord Jesus, Holy Spirit, Good and gracious God...)
2. Praise and thank God for what he Has done (We praise you for, We thank you for...)
3. Ask God for what you or someone else needs. (Bless, Help, Guide, Heal...)
4. Conclude in Christ. Amen (We ask this in the name of Jesus, We ask this through Christ our Lord...)

Praying Together: Take a moment to pray with another person or family member, following the points from "Personal: prayer" section.

TALK

Jesus tells the disciples that those who will be glorified by God are those who serve and give their life for others. One of the three missionary practices for the Jubilee year is performing acts of charity and justice.

As a family or household, make a plan to serve others in your community. When you serve, see the situation with the eyes of Jesus, love Jesus in the people you serve, give Jesus your hands to do His work, and share how you encountered Jesus in this act.

BIBLE STUDY

St. Anastasia Bible Study

A BIBLICAL WALK THROUGH THE MASS

The Mass is a face-to-face encounter with Jesus Christ, and you have been invited.

Virtually every word, gesture, hymn, and rite of the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass is handed down from ancient times. But do you know the significance of each of them?

In this 6-week study, we will discover the thoroughly Biblical character of the Lord's Supper as celebrated since the time of Christ.

Our study begins November 9. You may attend either the morning session, 9:00-10:30 am, or the evening session, 7:30-9:00 pm.

Please register by October 22. Materials cost $15 ($20 after 10/22). For online registration information: ScriptureStudyStA@gmail.com

DID YOU KNOW?

Escalating red flags in an adult's behavior

In most abuse cases, the victim knows the offender. Offenders go to great lengths to ensure that they are not strangers, often spending months or even years hiding in plain sight. Parents should be aware of a few red flags that range from obvious to subtle, and usually indicate a more sinister relationship at work between an offender and potential victims. Some obvious signs include telling children dirty jokes or showing them pornography. More subtle signs could be an adult who wrestles or tickles often, wants to be alone with children, gives gifts frequently, or encourages children to keep secrets. For more red flags, request a copy of the VIRTUS® article "The Rationale of Warning Signs" at lacatholics.org/did-you-know.
