LOVE GOD

As we near the end of the liturgical year we listen to Gospel readings from the final stage of Jesus' ministry—his teaching in Jerusalem. This Sunday Jesus is in conversation with one of the scribes of the temple. In a rare occurrence Jesus and the scribe agree on the two greatest commandments—to love God with all your being and to love your neighbor as yourself.

In today's selection from Deuteronomy Moses gives this teaching to the Israelites as the core of their life of faith and prayer, and Psalm 18 echoes this prayer with the words, "I love you, O LORD, my strength" (Psalm 18:2). Jews and Christians agree that our greatest responsibility is to love the one and only God, and that we cannot claim to love God without loving our neighbor as ourselves. *Copyright © J. S. ## ALL SAINTS DAY AND ALL SOULS DAY

Monday, November 1 is All Saints Day.

The Mass schedule is as follows:

- 6:30AM, 8AM, 9:30AM, 11AM, and 5PM

Tuesday, November 2 is All Souls Day. It is a day of prayer and remembrance. We invite you to bring a framed (4x6 or 5x7) picture of loved ones that have died. Place it on the table provided at the side of the Church entrance by Wednesday, October 30th. Your pictures will be displayed on a Remembrance Table during the month of November. The Mass schedule is as follows:

- 6:30AM, 8AM, 9:30AM and 5PM

MASS FOR THE SICK NOVEMBER 11TH AT 5PM

We cordially invite you to join us at our Mass For the Sick—a special Mass for the sick, for all those afflicted in their Body, Mind, and Spirit. This Mass includes Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick. You need not be infirm to attend this Liturgy. The community is invited to come participate and prayerfully support our St. Anastasia family members in need.

HOLY LAND HANDICRAFTS

Holy Land Handicrafts will be selling hand carved olive wood and mother of pearl religious items after the 5PM Mass on Nov 13th and the morning Masses on Nov. 14th. Funds from the purchase of these items help support and sustain Christian families in Bethlehem and Jerusalem.

FACT OF LIFE

Triathlete becomes first person with autism to complete the Ironman Triathlon

Competing in an Ironman competition is often the pinnacle of many athletes' sporting lives. That grueling 1.2-mile swim, 56-mile bike ride, and a 13.1-mile run will definitely stretch these sportsmen and women to their physical and mental limits.

However, Sam Holness, a 27-year-old triathlete, recently participated in the Ironman 70.3 World Championship in St. George, Utah, and in doing so, became the first person with autism to complete the race.

With the encouragement of his father, Tony, who is also his coach, the British man trained for over a year to prepare for this huge event. And on the day, Holness, who has autism spectrum disorder, had to contend with a myriad of tricky external factors that made the race all the harder.

Holness dealt with rain and lightning, which was then topped with a sandstorm. These conditions could have caused extra sensory stress for the athlete, considering his autism. But he still came in at an impressive 5 hours and 44 minutes.

Tony actually gave up his job to support his son's athletic ambitions that grew when he started studying for his bachelor's degree in sports science. And now, seeing his son achieve such an impressive feat, Tony is left thinking: "Actually, we sit down and we think: 'Is it real?'"

Now Holness is planning on becoming the first professional triathlete with autism, and will take part virtually in the London Marathon and a triathlon in Portugal in October. He and his father hope that his achievements will inspire others:

"If you can just inspire people and raise the awareness of autism, help employers to start recruiting more people on the spectrum and do it through sport, and that's narrowing it down to what our mission is and what we want to do," shared Tony.

While Holness' record is so inspiring, what is equally impressive is the love and dedication of his parents to help their son conquer whatever obstacles he has to face along the way. www.aleteia.org

KIDS' CORNER

JESUS SAID TO HIS DISCIPLES... "DO YOU THINK THAT I HAVE COME TO ESTABLISH PEACE ON THE EARTH? NO, I TELL YOU, BUT RATHER DIVISION."

LUKE 12:49, 51

Wait a second. Isn't Jesus the Prince of Peace? What is he talking about here? Jesus knows that people won't always like what he has to say. Many will turn away or reject him altogether. They will jeer spit at him on the cross. Jesus knows that following him isn't easy, even today. But Jesus doesn't force anyone to follow him. When we turn away from Jesus, we make a choice to separate or divide ourselves from him. Again, Jesus knows it will happen, but he always calls us back in love. When we turn back to Jesus and give everything up to Jesus, that's how we get his true peace.

JESUS, KEEP ME CLOSE TO YOU.

From the book entitled "Living Faith Kids" by Imprimatur Bishop Mark S. Rivituso

FAITH @ HOME

HEAR

Grab your Bible and look up the Gospel reading - Mark 12: 28b-34.

PRAY

Begin by praying with this statement from Jesus. Consider getting a piece of paper and in the center of then paper, write the name of someone who you love deeply and who you know is in need of prayer today.

As you write this person's name on the paper, ask Jesus to be with you and place all the needs of the person in the hands of Jesus. Draw a heart around the person's name. Close your eyes and pray with Jesus for this person. After your prayer time, reach out to this person and text them/email them a message that you prayed for them today. Turn your paper over, pray for someone you may be separated from. We are called to love our neighbor, as well as those we consider our enemies. Ask Jesus to be with you, to soften your heart and the heart of the person you have written down on this piece of paper. Close your eyes and place this person in your mind and in your heart, ask Jesus to help you forgive or reconcile with this person. This prayer time may be more difficult for you, but remember Jesus is here with you, the Holy Spirit will give you strength and peace in this situation. After this prayer time, consider praying the Psalm for this Sunday, especially the Responsorial Response: "I love you, Lord, my strength."

TALK

Gather with a family member or friend. Share the feelings you experienced praying for the two people today. How did you feel in your heart when you prayed for the family/friend you are close with? How did you feel when you prayed for someone you have been distant with? After sharing with each other, pray the prayer to the Holy Spirit.

COME HOLY SPIRIT

Come, Holy Spirit,
 Fill the hearts of your faithful,
 And kindle in us the fire of your love.
 Send forth your Spirit and we shall be created and you
 shall renew the face of the earth.
 Amen.

BIBLE STUDY

St. Anastasia Bible Study

A BIBLICAL WALK THROUGH THE MASS

The Mass is a face-to-face encounter with Jesus Christ, and you have been invited.

📖 Virtually every word, gesture, hymn, and rite of the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass is handed down from ancient times. But do you know the significance of each of them?

📖 In this 6-week study, we will discover the thoroughly Biblical character of the Lord's Supper as celebrated since the time of Christ.

📖 Our study begins November 9. You may attend either the morning session, 9:00-10:30 am, or the evening session, 7:30-9:00 pm.

📖 Please register by October 22. Materials cost $15 ($20 after 10/22). For online registration information: ScriptureStudyStA@gmail.com

Sign up online or at the Parish Office
 Contact: Carolyn Godlewski ScriptureStudyStA@gmail.com

ALTAR SERVICE MINISTRY

Altar Server Training Postponed!

The Parish Altar Server Training has been postponed. The training sessions originally scheduled for Tuesday, October 19 - Thursday, October 21st will now be offered on Tuesday, November 2nd - Thursday November 4th. The training will continue to be offered at 7:15am. We apologize for any inconvenience.

Servers are required to be members of the St. Anastasia Parish. The Altar Server Ministry is open to students that attend any school.

The Parish priests and the entire St. Anastasia Parish community appreciate your willingness to serve! Registration is available. For further information, please contact:

DID YOU KNOW?

The importance of maintaining emotional boundaries

As safe adults we have a responsibility to set healthy emotional boundaries with the children in our care, most importantly because we are helping to guide a child's development. In no way does this mean that adult-child relationships must be cold or uncaring. By maintaining healthy emotional boundaries, we as adults act as role models for other adults and for children themselves. For example, there is a big difference between being friendly and being friends with a child. For more information, request a copy of the VIRTUS® article "Emotional Boundaries" at lacatholics.org/did-you-know.

HALLOWEEN CANDY DRIVE

Halloween brings our candy share drive!

The Parish Candy Share Drive began in November 1991. We collect Halloween candies and goodies from local parishes and will package them in stockings to distribute during the holidays for needy families. This year we will be collecting your unwanted Halloween goodies (please do not go out and buy separately) from Monday, November 1st through Friday, November 5th. As a service to our St. A's families, your excess Halloween goodies can be brought to the school and placed in the donation boxes outside of the office. Volunteers will transport them to the local community centers to share with others. If there is any interest in volunteering to transport please reach out to Mrs. Linda Schmidt at (310) 645-8816
