GOD'S REIGN

By pointing to the end times, today's readings speak to the coming reign of God, when God will make all things new. In Christ, this time has already begun. We, by our energized watchfulness, can further God's reign. We can heal broken hearts, free captives, spread the Good News. Even so, the reign of God will not be complete without the second coming of Christ. Our weekly eucharistic gathering is a sign of the fullness of the end times. At Mass, we join as an assembly to recall and to claim the story of Jesus as our own. Together, we give thanks to God for the many gifts bestowed upon us. We receive nourishment in the simple but profound meal. Our weak and weary selves are invigorated and transformed by the power of Christ, so that we ourselves might become effective signs of God's reign, present and to come. *Copyright © J. S. ## NEW MUSIC MINISTRY DIRECTOR

Kate Comstock has recently joined our parish as the Director of Music Ministry. She has spent the past 25 years cantoring and singing in choirs at parishes across the county including Idaho, Alaska, New York City, Hawaii, Connecticut, and California.

Originally from Idaho, Kate holds a B.A. in Vocal Performance and trained at the College of Idaho and the University of Southern California, as well as California State University Northridge, where she attained her credentials as a Board-Certified Music Therapist.

She now resides in Marina del Rey with her husband and two sons, and is very excited to join us here at St. Anastasia's to help develop a thriving music ministry program.

HOLY LAND HANDICRAFTS

Holy Land Handicrafts will be selling hand carved olive wood and mother of pearl religious items after the 5PM Mass on Nov. 13th and the morning Masses on Nov. 14th.

Funds from the purchase of these items help support and sustain Christian families in Bethlehem and Jerusalem.

FACT OF LIFE

Mom gives birth to rare twins with Down syndrome: 'They've been my little gems'

A mom who gave birth to identical twin girls with Down syndrome is taking the world by storm. Savannah Combs, mom to Kennadi Rue and Mckenli Ackerman, posts about her girls on TikTok, where she has nearly 25,000 followers — and one video gaining over 1.5 million views.

Combs, who lives in Jacksonville, Florida spoke about life with her twins, who were born six weeks premature and had to spend four weeks in the NICU. "It's very rare what they have, but they've been my little gems," she said. "They're called mono-di twins, meaning that they had their own sacs, but they shared the same placenta, meaning that they were going to be identical. Mo di twins as it is, it's like very rare. And then you throw Down syndrome on top of it, it's like one in 2 million."

She also wants people to know that her twins are no different from anyone else. "They have feelings. They have a beating heart. They know how to talk," she said. "They know how to do things you do. They will get there. Like I said, it may be a step behind but they're going to do it. I've learned these kids are feisty little things and happy little things."

On her most popular TikTok video, Combs said she didn't know they had Down syndrome during her pregnancy, and refused invasive testing. She admitted to receiving some discrimination already.

"But as we have so many who love them, we have the little ones who are just so rude," she wrote. "I had one tell me, 'I wouldn't want those babies, if mine came out like that they would be straight up for adoption.' I said, good thing they weren't born to you and were born to me. God knew what he was doing by giving these babies to the right parents, who would love them regardless. I remember coming home from the hospital and crying to my mom, everyone loves them now, just wait till they get older. Little did I know how selfish I sounded, and how much I will always love my babies, and how blessed I am to see them grow every day! We can always have another baby who is considered 'normal,' but my two girls are normal in my eyes and living a pretty dang good life, if you ask me." www.liveaction.org

FAITH FORMATION

KIDS' CORNER

SING TO HIM. SING HIS PRAISE. PROCLAIM ALL HIS WONDROUS DEEDS.

PSALM 105:2

What do you do when you hear a great new song? Do you keep it to yourself or share it with your friends and family? I know I love to share music I hear. God asks us to do the same thing about him! Just as you might share your favorite song with a friend or family member, you can look for chances to bring up God in your conversations. For instance, when something good happens to a friend you might say, "Oh thank you, Jesus!" Or if you need help, you could ask someone to pray for you. Be open to the many ways the Holy Spirit invites you to sing God's praises!

JESUS. I LOVE YOU. I LOVE SHARING THINGS ABOUT YOU.

From the book entitled "Living Faith Kids" by Imprimatur Bishop Mark S. Rivituso

HEAR

Grab your Bible and look up the Gospel reading - Mark 13: 24-32.

PRAY

Read Psalm 16 (below) the first time in silence, allowing the words to be your own prayer to God. Pause for several moments sitting in silence with God. Read the Psalm a second time out loud, speaking your prayer to God. Listen for what God says in response to you.

*Keep me safe, O God;
in you I take refuge.
I say to the LORD,
you are my Lord,
you are my only good.*

*As for the holy ones who are in the land,
they are noble,
in whom is all my delight
They multiply their sorrows who court other gods.*

*Blood libations to them I will not pour out,
nor will I take their names upon my lips.
LORD, my allotted portion and my cup,
you have made my destiny secure.*

*Pleasant places were measured out for me;
fair to me indeed is my inheritance.*

*I bless the LORD who counsels me;
even at night my heart exhorts me.*

*I keep the LORD always before me;
with him at my right hand, I shall never be shaken.*

*Therefore my heart is glad, my soul rejoices;
my body also dwells secure,*

*For you will not abandon my soul to Sheol,
nor let your devout one see the pit.*

*You will show me the path to life,
abounding joy in your presence,
the delights at your right hand forever.*

TALK

The Gospel reading tells us that there are signs when Jesus is near.

How do you know Jesus is near you?

Jesus promised us that he would return. What do you think Jesus wants you to do so you are ready for his return?

DID YOU KNOW?

Tips to keep our school communities safe

As children settle back into regular (for the most part) school routines, parents can help keep their school communities safe by following a few simple guidelines. 1: Be aware. Read up on the school's COVID-19 safety plans, and prep your children for what to expect. 2: Be charitable. Understand that everyone in school may not share the same views, and remind yourself and your children to be kind. 3: Be consistent. Help your children build healthy habits at school and at home. For more information, request a copy of the VIRTUS® article "Back-to-school during the pandemic," at lacatholics.org/did-you-know.
