INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

John the Baptist had been told that he would see the Lamb of God, who takes away the sins of the world. He listened, he believed, and he kept his eyes open. He was ready when God revealed the truth. Let's ask ourselves: are our eyes open? Are we ready? ©LPi

Understanding the VIRTUS® "Protecting God's Children" program

Child sexual abusers often target nurturing, child-friendly environments, where parents and participants assume that no one would ever want to harm a child.

The Archdiocese of Los Angeles began implementing the VIRTUS® Protecting God's Children sexual abuse prevention program in 2004 to send a message to potential predators that child sexual abuse is not tolerated. Through this program, adults learn that through early identification, awareness, and education they can be "proactive" in protecting children and young people from child sexual abuse. Since the program began, more than 405,000 adults have been trained in abuse prevention.

Additionally, more than 165,000 Catholic school and religious education students are trained annually with an age-appropriate curriculum on boundary awareness and how to communicate if violations of those safe boundaries occur. For more information, visit <https://lacatholics.org/education-and-training/>.

The Archdiocese of Los Angeles is committed to ensuring that parishes, schools and ministries are safe places for everyone in our community. For more information about support for victim-survivors and abuse prevention and protection efforts of the Archdiocese, visit: lacatholics.org/protect.

CATHOLIC LIFE EXPLAINED

Question:

What is unique or different about the way Catholics read and are exposed to the Bible?

Answer:

Catholics are exposed to Scripture primarily through the Sunday readings from a book known as the Lectionary. The Lectionary is a book of selected passages from the Bible set in the context of a liturgical season, such as Advent, Lent, or ordinary time. There are four readings assigned to any Sunday: the first reading (usually from the Old Testament), the responsorial psalm, the second reading (usually from a New Testament letter), and the Gospel reading. These readings together give them a new context. The selected readings relate to one another in a unique manner that is not present in the Bible text itself. In close proximity to each other, these readings now have the opportunity to converse with each other in a way that would have not been possible before. A homilist pays attention to all four readings, preparing a reflection that speaks of this conversation among the readings, enabling us to zero in on what this unique combination of God's word has to say to us this particular Sunday.

Next time you attend Sunday liturgy, try reading the Scripture ahead of time and see how this new relationship among the readings addresses and challenges you to be a better Christian here and now.

ST. MARGARET'S CENTER THANKS YOU

Thank You! St. Margaret's Center's staff wishes to thank all of the St. Anastasia families, both in the school and parish, who donated to our Christmas Program for low-income families that took place on December 17th. Although we couldn't have our full in-person event again this year, our drive-thru worked beautifully, with Santa Claus, music, entertainers, Rams mascot/cheerleaders, Christmas trees & decorations----all creating Christmas cheer. In all, 502 families, with 1,314 children received the grocery and Target gift cards, along with goody bags, stuffed animals, school kits and fresh-baked cookies. We're also very grateful for your support at Thanksgiving with your generous gift card donations, and the school's Adopt-a-Family program at Christmas, as well as all of your generous support throughout the year! May God bless you all in 2023 for your generosity!

Be sure not to miss our monthly donations basket after every Mass this Sunday, January 15, 2023. Let's continue to always act with love in word and in deeds.
