21ST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

He said to them, "But who do you say that I am?"
Simon Peter said in reply, "You are the Christ, the Son of the living God." - Mt 16:15-16

FROM THE DESK OF FATHER LESZEK

Warm Greetings!

Well, here we are at the end of another Summer. For most of us, the summer months never seem to last quite long enough, especially for students on break from classes, or others who enjoy long walks on the beach during vacation. At the end of the month of August, as many are settling back into their schools and jobs following vacation, we also, know this is a time for people to look to the Church once again for inspiration and fellowship. Here at St. Anastasia's Parish, we want to be a welcoming Church so that when people are looking for a Church to attend, their search stops right here! While we would love to see our Church grow, this is far from being the only reason to be a welcoming Church. We live in a day and age that people need to hear the truth of the Word of God, which is constant and true, even in a world of relativism regarding moral truths.

I would like to take this opportunity to invite School Families to Sunday Masses. Gathering in worship and community at Mass is the best and most important part of our week here at St. Anastasia's. We make it a priority to see that each student regularly attends Mass with his or her classmates and teachers, taking a break from the normal routine to set aside some time to be with God. But as important as our weekday Masses are, they are no replacement for Sunday Mass. On Sundays, it is not just a privilege for us to attend Mass, it is a duty. Sundays are when we commemorate Christ's sacrifice on the cross and His victory over death and take time from our busy normal lives to find "rest" in worship, sacrifice, and prayer. Can I count on you to make sure our school children are receiving the benefit of regular attendance at Sunday Mass? Here at St. A's, we seek to nourish the minds and bodies of our students — but their souls are our first concern, and we can't do it without your help! As their parents, you are their primary educators in the Christian life. Let's work together to ensure they understand the beauty and grace of a Sunday morning spent in worship.

Finally, I would like to take this opportunity to welcome all new members of our Parish. Thank you for joining us here at the Church of Saint Anastasia. We're so glad that you've decided to join us in our ministry and worship. We hope that you will find it a place of comfort and peace, and that your time with us will help you grow spiritually. Remember, our Church isn't just a building, it's a family. So come, let's worship, grow and serve together, for we are one in spirit and in purpose. We eagerly await you in our Church as we continue our spiritual journey together. May God's peace, love, and joy be with you and your family always. We look forward to seeing you in Church every Sunday!

In Christ,
Fr. Leszek

F.Y.I

St. Anastasia staff and the Archdiocese of Los Angeles urges everyone to be extremely cautious with any emails or texts appearing to come from a Church official that ask for money, gift cards, or an urgent request for a reply. They warn: No priest of the diocese will ever solicit for cash donations or gift cards via personal emails or text messages. Thank you.

LIVE THE LITURGY

Inspiration of the week

"Who do you say that I am?" Let our whole lives be the answer, given not in words, but in action. If the world looked at your life, your decisions, your words, and your deeds, would they conclude that you are a person who believes Christ is the son of the living God?

SAT: 5PM Fr. Rozborski

SUN: 7:30AM Fr. Rozborski

SUN: 9AM Fr. Leszek

SUN: 11AM Msgr. Cox

SUN: 5PM Fr. Leszek

First Reading: Whenever I speak, I must cry out, violence and outrage is my message; the word of the LORD has brought me derision and reproach all the day. (Jer 20:8)

Psalms: My soul is thirsting for you, O Lord my God. (Ps 63)

Second Reading: I urge you, brothers and sisters, by the mercies of God, to offer your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and pleasing to God, your spiritual worship. (Rom 12:1)

Gospel: "Whoever wishes to come after me must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me. For whoever wishes to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake will find it." (Mt 16:24-25)

FAITH FORMATION

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

Sometimes when I ask one of my children about who they were with or about a classmate at school they answer me with, "You don't know them." Apparently, since I do not know him or her personally, I do not need to know the person's name. I may not know this person but I do know that he or she exists in the everyday life of one of my children. If my children don't share with me anything about their friend or classmate, I can only assume he or she has no great impact on my sons' or daughter's daily lives. Of course, sometimes the response I get is simply my teen being a typical teen.

Has Jesus had a significant impact on your life? Do you know Jesus personally? If someone asked you about him what would you say?

My children respond the way they do to me because they are still young and immature. However, some adults are immature as well: immature in faith. We shy away from any discussion of God in our lives and we rarely share our faith. Most days we will not be asked the question, "Who is Jesus?" But we will be in situations where we are being called to share a little bit about ourselves. If Jesus has truly changed our lives and we never seem to want to share something about him with others, they may as well assume that he has had no real impact on us. On the other hand, if we are mature disciples in Jesus Christ, I suspect that others can't help but know about the great friend we have in him.

Understanding the VIRTUS® Protecting God's Children program

The NCMEC CyberTipline

Online exploitation and enticement of young people is an ongoing problem, across social media, gaming platforms, and other websites. Victims can range in age and background, making it harder to prevent exploitation. The National Center for Missing and Exploited Children (NCMEC) operates the CyberTipline, a centralized system for reporting suspected cases of technology-facilitated child sexual exploitation. Reports can be filed online at report.cybertip.org or via a 24-hour hotline at 1-800-843-5678. For more information, read the VIRTUS® article "Online Child Sexual Exploitation and the NCMEC CyberTipline" at <https://lacatholics.org/did-you-know/>

Call To Be Made Whole

Empowerment of the Holy Spirit

Fr. Pat Crowley, SSCC

This retreat will center on renewal in the Holy Spirit with special times provided for healing pray: "O Holy Spirit, renew your wonders in this our day, as by a new Pentecost." (St. John XX111). "The rediscovery of the power of the Spirit, then, is a fundamental part of Church renewal. It has to be at the basis of everything else and it will, of necessity, affect everything else...worship and liturgy, community, daily life together, service, evangelism." Steve Clark, Where Are We Headed? This retreat is an opportunity to experience time for quiet reflection and prayer, personal ministry, and daily celebration of the eucharist. The sacrament of reconciliation will also be available for those wishing to avail themselves of the sacrament. There will be a general healing service on Saturday evening in the Chapel. Fr. Pat is a member of the Congregation of the Sacred Hearts in the Western Region of the United States Province. He has been actively involved in the Healing & Retreat Ministries for over forty years. He resides at the Community House in Hemet, CA.

Labyrinth: A Time to Walk

Sue Ballotti,
Labyrinth Facilitator
Paul Craig,
Labyrinth Facilitator

Whatever your season, make time to come walk with us!

There is a time and a season for all things in heaven and earth. The labyrinth in an outdoor setting is a powerful way to reconnect with nature, away from screens, noise, and busy lives. Walk amid the sights, sounds and scents of natural surroundings. Following the labyrinth path, we allow our souls to catch up as we feel earth's solid ground, hear wind in the trees and breathe in the fragrance of the plants. Labyrinths walks and prayer-in-motion can be a transforming activity, turning sorrow into joy, grief into purpose and uncertainty into calm acceptance and trust.

Join Sue Ballotti and Paul Craig, Veriditas Certified Labyrinth Facilitators, on an all-day all labyrinth experience that includes historical background, group sharing, and two guided and themed labyrinth walks -- a walk in the trees and a walk to transformation.

Cost: $75 per person - lunch included.
To register call José at (310) 377-4867 x250
